Russia Seen Ready To OK A-Test Ban

Radio Moscow, Tass News Report Offer Without Comment

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials predicted today Russia probably will accept President Eisenhower's proposal to start negotiations Oct. 31 on a worldwide system to prevent sneak nuclear weapons tests.

Eisenhower offered Friday to suspend U.S. nuclear tests for at least one year, provided such negotiations got under way.

His only other condition was that Russia continue its 4½-month-old halt in Soviet tests. The Russians announced the halt after completing a test series.

In a statement and a note to the Kremlin, Eisenhower called for talks in New York under United Nations auspices. Results would be reported through Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to the U.N. General Assembly and the Security Council.

In Russia, radio Moscow and the Tass news agency reported Eisenhower's proposal without comment. There was no comment from Soviet officials.

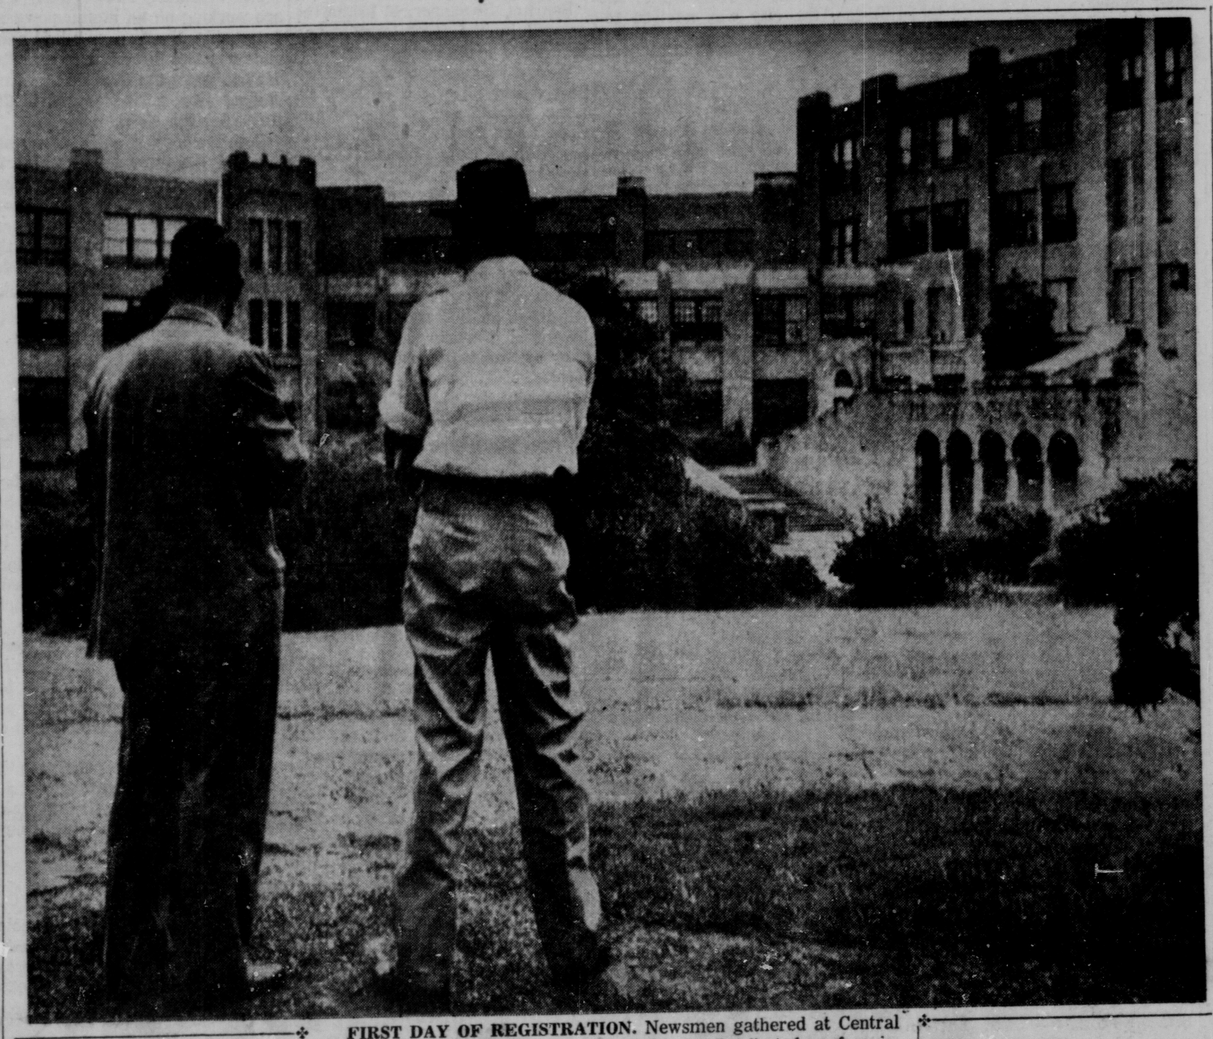

In Congress, both Republicans and Democrats voiced praise for the offer.

But Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif) objected strongly to a part of the Eisenhower statement that left the way open for resumption of tests unless, among other things, there was satisfactory progress toward disarmament. Holifield said such a condition could kill the plan.

U.S. officials said their expectation of Soviet acceptance was based primarily on results of a seven-week Geneva meeting of scientists from the United States, Russia and six other countries on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

The scientists agreed it was technically possible to create a worldwide system of inspection stations, reportedly about 180, to

Foreign Aid Tops Agenda For Decision

National Debt Limit Federal School Aid Also Await Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — This promised to be a hectic day for Congress as it drove to wind up its nearly eight-month session.

Foreign aid topped an imposing array of matters still to be acted on before the legislators can call it quits for this year. Leaders were hoping for adjournment of the second session of the 85th Congress by sometime tonight.

Items awaiting action included legislation dealing with the national debt limit, federal aid to education, renegotiation of government defense contracts, benefit payments to railroad workers, the government's security program and appropriations measures.

As if these weren't enough, a last minute drive developed to try to push through a trimmed down 800-million-dollar federal housing and community facilities bill. Legislation introduced by Sens. John Sparkman D-Ala. and J. William Fulbright D-Ark. combined two measures passed by the Senate earlier in the year, but which met defeat in the House.

Housing Administrator Albert Cole said the revised bill was unacceptable to the Eisenhower administration and could hardly be regarded as a serious effort to reach agreement on sound housing legislation this year.

The 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid money bill had top priority in the Senate, where a final fight was in the offing over proposals to make new cuts. Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La) said he planned a two-hour speech in support of amendments to trim the measure by 150 million dollars.

The House has passed an aid money bill totaling $3,078,000,000.

Both House and Senate made considerable progress Friday.

The Senate voted a temporary eight-billion-dollar hike in the federal debt limit to a peacetime high of 288 billion dollars. The bill was passed 57-20 after proceedings were stalled by a two-hour speech in which Sen. George W. Malone (R-Nev) decried what he said was "America's attempt to "support the world."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said the Senate had to go along with the administration's request to raise the debt ceiling because the government faces a 12-billion-dollar deficit this year.

However, Byrd succeeded in

Fair Weather Lures Crowd To 113th Fair

Attendance Totals 24,000; Turnout Today Seen Large

Fair weather for the final day of the fair.

That prospect lured a growing crowd this afternoon to Columbiana County's 113th annual fair which ends tonight.

Galen Greenisen, president of the board, predicted a possible turnout of 10,000 for the climax to what he called "one of the best fairs ever held in the county."

The fair has been "weather lucky" since it opened Tuesday as the only rain was Thursday night and that came as the events were about over.

The grandstand was packed for the Bar M. Rodeo, the special attraction Friday evening. A total of 1,500 paid to see the two-hour show. It will be repeated this evening at 8. This was the largest attendance for the grandstand for any of the special programs.

John Oliver of Lisbon made his third ascension in the hot-air balloon. His ascension was delayed due to high winds and he stayed up over 5 minutes before parachuting. He is scheduled to make his last ascension today at 5 p.m.

In the tractor pulling contest yesterday morning the order of finish was:

Tractor under 3,200 pounds — George Phillis of Salem R.D. 3.

3,801 to 5,100 — Carl Hoppel of Calcutta, Charles Woolf of Salem R.D. 2, William Ellsworth of Alliance R.D. 4 and Gail Phillips of Salem R.D. 3.

5,100 to 6,800 — Ray McPherson of Minerva R.D. 3, Charles Woolf of Salem R.D. 2, Daryl Hoppel of Calcutta and Jim Hahlen of Beloit R.D. 1.

Winners in 4-H Club horse and pony events were:

Saddle Horse—George Gaydos of Lisbon R. D. 3.

Ponies 3-years and over (mares and geldings) — Billy Skeels of Lisbon R.D. 4, Alan Knizat of Salem R.D. 2, Kenneth Votaw of Lisbon R.D. 4, Norman Gaydos and George Gaydos, both of Lisbon

Buses To Begin Fare Increase On Monday

The increase will boost the price of a one - way fare to 20 cents on the lines of the Holtz Transportation Co., Tri - State Transit Co. and Inter - City Transit.

The boost was approved Monday night by City Council on recommendation of its franchise committee, which studied the request of the three firms for a higher fare.

The companies had pointed out increasing operating costs left them no other choice.

Multimillion Loss Seen In Grain Strike

Elevator Workers Quit Great Lakes' Major Terminals

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The strike of elevator workers which has shut down grain - handling plants here and at the major terminals on Lake Superior poses the threat of tremendous losses.

"It means multimillion dollar losses to the farmers and shippers," the Minneapolis Grain Commission Merchants Assn. said in a special advisory Friday night.

"This action by the labor chiefs to shut off vital arteries of grain movement results in as large a loss as possible to farmers and shippers because of the harvest pressure that now exists."

A complete embargo on grain shipments was established by railroads serving Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis., where 2,300 loaded cars already were at the docks.

Another 2,000 awaited unloading in Minneapolis when the American Federation of Grain Millers pulled some 300 members of Local 182 off their grain-handling jobs in support of wage demands.

With country elevators bulging from record harvest, there was no place farmers could take their grain. Combine crews still were ranging fields in the vast Minnesota - Dakota wheat country, and commission men said growers probably would have to dump the grain on the ground and take a chance on the elements unless the walkout is ended soon.

Shipping activity was reported halted at Bismarck, N. D., where local storage is filled beyond 90 per cent capacity. The situation was blamed for a three-cent drop in wheat prices.

Union spokesmen said hourly pay boosts of from 15 to 22 cents are sought against a management offer of 10 cents. Grain shovelers, largest group in the local, now get $2.18 per hour.

In Duluth-Superior the union is asking 18 cents an hour increase on a scale of pay ranging from $2.07-$2.47. There, too, elevator firms have offered 10. A total of 12 elevators is shut down there.

Flour millers, who recently settled with their workers on a new contract, have not been affected. Their grain supplies are obtained direct without terminal handling. The idled elevators in the heavy shipping centers have capacities approaching 100 million bushels, 61 million of it at the head of the Great Lakes.

Cost Of Living Sets New High

Three Factors Cited For Advance In July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported Friday the cost of living in July set another record high. Its consumer price index rose two - tenths of 1 per cent to 123.9.

The 1947-49 average is 100 in the index.

Advances in transportation, food and medical care costs were chiefly responsible for the July rise.

The index has gone up in 21 of the last 23 months. There has been no decline since August 1956.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics predicted little change in the general cost of living for the next several months.

He said food prices will continue down but the advent of the fall clothing and new model automobiles, both expected to cost more, will have the effect of offsetting a drop in food prices.

Clague attributed two - thirds of the June-July increase to transportation prices. The net advance in this field was 1 per cent.

Gasoline prices jumped 2.2 per cent as price wars ended in several localities. Used cars went up 2.9 per cent while there was no change in the average for new cars.

Food prices increased one-tenth of 1 per cent. Higher prices for pork, eggs and milk more than offset reductions for fresh fruits and vegetables.

The food index by itself for July was 121.7 per cent of the 1947-49 base, or 3.7 per cent higher than in July, 1957.

The complete index of consumer costs, at 123.9 was 2.6 per cent higher than in July a year ago.

Bonn 'Cool' To Red Chief's Treaty Offer

Says 'Friend' Plan Should Be Taken Up At Summit Meeting

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today that his proposal for a European friendship treaty should be discussed at a Big Four summit meeting.

To handle the question any other way would be an unnecessary complication in East - West exchanges, said a West German note to Moscow published here today.

The note, handed to the Soviet Foreign Office by Ambassador Hans Kroll Friday, was in reply to Khrushchev's letter of July 15 to all European countries and the United States. Khrushchev proposed a nonaggression pact, a European security system, and a disarmament agreement.

The German note said the decisive points of Khrushchev's proposals appeared to be identical with Soviet proposals made in connection with the preparation of a summit conference.

It pointed out that in May and July the United States, Britain, and France had made proposals for the agenda for a summit meeting which had not been answered.

To Little Rock School

Justice Whittaker May Hold Answer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supreme Court Justice Charles Evans Whittaker may hold the answer to whether racial integration must be resumed at Little Rock's Central High School when it reopens Sept. 2.

But the answer will not come before next Thursday, probably later.

It was uncertain whether Whittaker would rule alone, or with other members of the nine-man court.

The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People Friday asked Whittaker for an order removing all legal barriers to immediate re-entry of Negro pupils into Central High, a focal point in the far-ranging integration controversy.

The NAACP action seeks, in part, to set aside an order of the U.S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis that would delay integration at the Arkansas high school until the Supreme Court has ruled on the main issues in the case.

The petition was directed to Whittaker because the full court is in summer recess, until Oct. 6, and he has jurisdiction over the Eighth Circuit, which includes Arkansas.

With Whittaker on his way to Los Angeles, Thurgood Marshall of New York, an attorney for the NAACP, filed the petition with the office of the Supreme Court clerk.

The court's deputy clerk, Edmund P. Cullinan, Friday night sent the petition via air mail special delivery to Whittaker in Los Angeles, where the justice plans to attend the American Bar Assn. convention.

Whittaker, who had been in touch with the clerk's office earlier in the day, directed that attorneys for the Little Rock school board be advised they have until noon next Thursday, Pacific Coast Time, to file papers in opposition.

Marshall mailed copies of the NAACP petition to the school board even before he filed it with the Supreme Court.

During a train stop at Ogden, Utah, Whittaker said he will have to examine the NAACP documents before deciding what he will do.

Basically, what the NAACP is asking is quick nullification of a June 21 order of U.S. District Judge Harry J. Lemley of Hope, Ark., suspending integration at Central High for 2½ years.

The Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals last Monday reversed Judge Lemley by a 6-1 vote.

But on Wednesday, the Court of Appeals stayed effectiveness of its ruling until the Supreme Court acts on an appeal of the Little Rock school board. The school board was given 30 days in which to petition the high court for a review.

Marshall asked Whittaker to set

Quemoy's Hit By Heaviest Red Barrage

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Red guns subjected Nationalist Quemoy today to its heaviest bombardment in history, official sources reported. There were reports the Reds had poured 25,000 shells on Quemoy and Little Quemoy but this was without confirmation.

The reports of heavy bombardment raised a scare that the bombardment might be a prelude to invasion of that major Nationalist outpost more than 100 miles across Formosa Strait. It was noted, however, that there were no reports Red Chinese planes now based within easy range had taken part in the bombardment.

Official sources said the Red guns from the nearby island fortress of Amoy and from the Red mainland opened up at 6:30 p.m. They said the Nationalist artillery replied vigorously.

If this is the heaviest artillery barrage ever to hit Quemoy, then the bombardment would have exceeded the record 9,395 rounds fired at Quemoy June 24, 1957.

Details of the bombardment still were incomplete.

Ike Approves $39.6 Billion Defense Bill

Aims Critical Blast At Congress For Giving Too Much

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, with a critical blast at Congress for giving him more than he wanted, has signed the $39,602,827,000 defense appropriation bill.

In a statement accompanying his signing of the measure Friday, Eisenhower criticized Congress for:

1. Giving him more than one billion dollars above the amount he said he feels is necessary to maintain the nation's security.

2. Placing mandatory minimum strengths on the Army's reserve components.

Eisenhower said the mandatory floors for the reserve forces introduced rigidity into the defense structure and would make it hard to follow the flexible course recently approved by Congress in the Defense Reorganization Act.

"Moreoever," Eisenhower said, "such restrictions are wasteful of money and resources at a time when essential programs are placing mounting demands on both."

The bill provides money to maintain 2,580,000 uniformed regulars, 300,000 Army reserves and a National Guard averaging 400,000 men. In each instance, the levels topped those proposed by Eisenhower for this fiscal year ending next June 30. Eisenhower could impound money for manpower levels bigger than he wanted.

The Air Force will get $17,877,624,000, compared with a requested $17,652,854,000; the Army $8,992,859,000, compared with $8,953,535,000; the Navy and Marine Corps, $11,359,427,000, compared with $10,870,181,000 requested.

Fire Destroys House Trailer

Owner Sleeps In Car Waiting To Move In

While the owner slept in a car outside, fire destroyed his newly purchased house trailer at the Hayes Trailer Court of Toronto R. D. 2, along Route 7, at 12:50 a.m. today. The loss was set at $2,500.

An auto wrecker from the Highway Auto Parts, located closeby, was used to pull the burning trailer, owned by Leonard Cooper of Toronto R. D. 2, from the area of the other trailers, according to Wellsville firemen.

The court is at the foot of Flag Pole Hill, just north of Port Homer.

Cooper had just purchased the trailer Friday afternoon but had not moved in. He apparently was sleeping in the car until the furnishings could be arranged.

Firemen said the blaze started either from a cigarette or a spark on the sofa.

Eight men responded to the call and found the trailer engulfed in flames. The trailer was pulled out of the court so the heat would not scorch the others.

Firemen fought the blaze for 45 minutes before bringing it under control. They said the loss was insured.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics predicted little change in the general cost of living for the next several months.

He said food prices will continue down but the advent of the fall clothing and new model automobiles, both expected to cost more, will have the effect of offsetting a drop in food prices.

Clague attributed two - thirds of the June-July increase to transportation prices. The net advance in this field was 1 per cent.

Gasoline prices jumped 2.2 per cent as price wars ended in several localities. Used cars went up 2.9 per cent while there was no change in the average for new cars.

Food prices increased one-tenth of 1 per cent. Higher prices for pork, eggs and milk more than offset reductions for fresh fruits and vegetables.

The food index by itself for July was 121.7 per cent of the 1947-49 base, or 3.7 per cent higher than in July, 1957.

The complete index of consumer costs, at 123.9 was 2.6 per cent higher than in July a year ago.

Ike Approves $39.6 Billion Defense Bill

Aims Critical Blast At Congress For Giving Too Much

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, with a critical blast at Congress for giving him more than he wanted, has signed the $39,602,827,000 defense appropriation bill.

In a statement accompanying his signing of the measure Friday, Eisenhower criticized Congress for:

1. Giving him more than one billion dollars above the amount he said he feels is necessary to maintain the nation's security.

2. Placing mandatory minimum strengths on the Army's reserve components.

Eisenhower said the mandatory floors for the reserve forces introduced rigidity into the defense structure and would make it hard to follow the flexible course recently approved by Congress in the Defense Reorganization Act.

"Moreoever," Eisenhower said, "such restrictions are wasteful of money and resources at a time when essential programs are placing mounting demands on both."

The bill provides money to maintain 2,580,000 uniformed regulars, 300,000 Army reserves and a National Guard averaging 400,000 men. In each instance, the levels topped those proposed by Eisenhower for this fiscal year ending next June 30. Eisenhower could impound money for manpower levels bigger than he wanted.

The Air Force will get $17,877,624,000, compared with a requested $17,652,854,000; the Army $8,992,859,000, compared with $8,953,535,000; the Navy and Marine Corps, $11,359,427,000, compared with $10,870,181,000 requested.

Quemoy's Hit By Heaviest Red Barrage

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Red guns subjected Nationalist Quemoy today to its heaviest bombardment in history, official sources reported. There were reports the Reds had poured 25,000 shells on Quemoy and Little Quemoy but this was without confirmation.

The reports of heavy bombardment raised a scare that the bombardment might be a prelude to invasion of that major Nationalist outpost more than 100 miles across Formosa Strait. It was noted, however, that there were no reports Red Chinese planes now based within easy range had taken part in the bombardment.

Official sources said the Red guns from the nearby island fortress of Amoy and from the Red mainland opened up at 6:30 p.m. They said the Nationalist artillery replied vigorously.

If this is the heaviest artillery barrage ever to hit Quemoy, then the bombardment would have exceeded the record 9,395 rounds fired at Quemoy June 24, 1957.

Details of the bombardment still were incomplete.

Owner Sleeps In Car Waiting To Move In

While the owner slept in a car outside, fire destroyed his newly purchased house trailer at the Hayes Trailer Court of Toronto R. D. 2, along Route 7, at 12:50 a.m. today. The loss was set at $2,500.

An auto wrecker from the Highway Auto Parts, located closeby, was used to pull the burning trailer, owned by Leonard Cooper of Toronto R. D. 2, from the area of the other trailers, according to Wellsville firemen.

The court is at the foot of Flag Pole Hill, just north of Port Homer.

Cooper had just purchased the trailer Friday afternoon but had not moved in. He apparently was sleeping in the car until the furnishings could be arranged.

Firemen said the blaze started either from a cigarette or a spark on the sofa.

Eight men responded to the call and found the trailer engulfed in flames. The trailer was pulled out of the court so the heat would not scorch the others.

Firemen fought the blaze for 45 minutes before bringing it under control. They said the loss was insured.

Frost Action Seen In Slides

Situation On Hill Rd. Termed Hazardous

Recent rock slides on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." between E. 4th and State Sts. are the result of frost action and not a major movement of rock within the hillside, the city was advised today.

Ralph J. Bernhagen, chief of the Division of Geological Survey of the Department of Natural Resources, and Russell A. Brant, head of the area geology section, reported their findings in a letter to Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti, who requested the inspection.

The geologists said the "spalling off" of rock is expected to continue and constitutes a potentially hazardous traffic condition, particularly for cars traveling at a high rate of speed.

The state experts said, "Frost action is responsible for most of the disintegration of the rock face. It is a problem of continuous maintenance rather than a large-scale engineering operation."

Director Maggianetti said the city will check further into the possibility of remedial maintenance and cautioned motorists to drive within the 35 - mile speed limit so they can stop in event of a sudden rock slide.

The director asked for the inspection after a slide about a month ago closed both lanes of traffic until the rock could be removed.

Norway Set To Welcome U.S. A-Sub

BERGEN, Norway (AP)—Norway's second-largest city prepared a hearty welcome today for the USS Skate amid foreign controversy on whether nuclear-powered vessels are safe in heavily populated areas.

Britain joined Denmark in saying they should be kept away from large cities because a collision or similar accident might endanger the populations.

But the man who built the only atomic submarines afloat, U.S. Rear Adm. Hyman Rickover, said they are designed to avoid all possible accidents, including collisions.

The argument was started by Denmark Thursday. It refused to let the Skate visit Copenhagen for fear of a collision or similar accident.

The seafaring Norwegians, who are working on an atomic-powered cargo ship, lined up an army band and a navy detachment on the dock to greet the Skate on its first landing after poking around in the ice under the North Pole.

Both Defense Minister Nils Handal and the navy chief, Adm. P. J. E. Jacobsen, planned to come up from Oslo for the occasion. After calling at this west coast fishing and shipping center, the Skate is scheduled to visit Oslo, Norway's capital and largest city, for two days.

He asked anyone with a commission to surrender it, pointing out they are liable to arrest for misrepresenting themselves as police officers if found with a gun or badge.

A list of special policemen in the police department also has been abolished, Maggianetti said, because of the employment of nine new officers.

3 Men Fined For Loitering

Girl Forfeits Bond In Bus Terminal Case

Three men were fined and a girl forfeited a bond Friday in Municipal Court on charges of loitering in the Bus Terminal.

Judge George L. Brokaw fined Ray Landfried, 23, of 1169 Erie St., Jerry Anderson, 20, of Clark St., and Ralph Burson, 22, of 829 Avondale St., $10 and costs each but suspended the fines of Anderson and Burson.

Ann Skidmore, 18, of 514 Walnut St. forfeited a $16 bond.

The four were arrested by Patrolmen Orin Smith and Jerry Adkins Thursday night.

During the hearings, Officer Smith testified they had been warned once previously not to congregate in the terminal.

Judge Brokaw in pronouncing sentence warned the trio the terminal is not to be used as a loafing place.

The ancient city ordinance reads: "It shall be unlawful for persons having no occupation or business at such places to gather or congregate upon, or to occupy, street corners, sidewalks in front of any dwelling or place of business, or in front of any place of worship or amusement within the corporate limits of the city."

Frost Action Seen In Slides

Situation On Hill Rd. Termed Hazardous

Recent rock slides on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." between E. 4th and State Sts. are the result of frost action and not a major movement of rock within the hillside, the city was advised today.

Ralph J. Bernhagen, chief of the Division of Geological Survey of the Department of Natural Resources, and Russell A. Brant, head of the area geology section, reported their findings in a letter to Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti, who requested the inspection.

The geologists said the "spalling off" of rock is expected to continue and constitutes a potentially hazardous traffic condition, particularly for cars traveling at a high rate of speed.

The state experts said, "Frost action is responsible for most of the disintegration of the rock face. It is a problem of continuous maintenance rather than a large-scale engineering operation."

Director Maggianetti said the city will check further into the possibility of remedial maintenance and cautioned motorists to drive within the 35 - mile speed limit so they can stop in event of a sudden rock slide.

The director asked for the inspection after a slide about a month ago closed both lanes of traffic until the rock could be removed.

Norway Set To Welcome U.S. A-Sub

BERGEN, Norway (AP)—Norway's second-largest city prepared a hearty welcome today for the USS Skate amid foreign controversy on whether nuclear-powered vessels are safe in heavily populated areas.

Britain joined Denmark in saying they should be kept away from large cities because a collision or similar accident might endanger the populations.

But the man who built the only atomic submarines afloat, U.S. Rear Adm. Hyman Rickover, said they are designed to avoid all possible accidents, including collisions.

The argument was started by Denmark Thursday. It refused to let the Skate visit Copenhagen for fear of a collision or similar accident.

The seafaring Norwegians, who are working on an atomic-powered cargo ship, lined up an army band and a navy detachment on the dock to greet the Skate on its first landing after poking around in the ice under the North Pole.

Both Defense Minister Nils Handal and the navy chief, Adm. P. J. E. Jacobsen, planned to come up from Oslo for the occasion. After calling at this west coast fishing and shipping center, the Skate is scheduled to visit Oslo, Norway's capital and largest city, for two days.

Special And Private Police Permits Called

Special and private police commissions are in the process of being canceled, Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti said today.

The director said letters are being mailed to five men who hold the commissions, asking they be surrendered. He said commissions will be given only to those employed as plant guards or watchmen.

He asked anyone with a commission to surrender it, pointing out they are liable to arrest for misrepresenting themselves as police officers if found with a gun or badge.

A list of special policemen in the police department also has been abolished, Maggianetti said, because of the employment of nine new officers.

3 Men Fined For Loitering

Girl Forfeits Bond In Bus Terminal Case

Three men were fined and a girl forfeited a bond Friday in Municipal Court on charges of loitering in the Bus Terminal.

Judge George L. Brokaw fined Ray Landfried, 23, of 1169 Erie St., Jerry Anderson, 20, of Clark St., and Ralph Burson, 22, of 829 Avondale St., $10 and costs each but suspended the fines of Anderson and Burson.

Ann Skidmore, 18, of 514 Walnut St. forfeited a $16 bond.

The four were arrested by Patrolmen Orin Smith and Jerry Adkins Thursday night.

During the hearings, Officer Smith testified they had been warned once previously not to congregate in the terminal.

Judge Brokaw in pronouncing sentence warned the trio the terminal is not to be used as a loafing place.

The ancient city ordinance reads: "It shall be unlawful for persons having no occupation or business at such places to gather or congregate upon, or to occupy, street corners, sidewalks in front of any dwelling or place of business, or in front of any place of worship or amusement within the corporate limits of the city."

aside the stay. Even if Whittaker should grant this request, there would not be enough time left to dispose of the legal formalities before reopening of Central High a week from next Tuesday.

So Marshall asked Whittaker to vacate Lemley's order granting the 2½ year delay.

Should this be done, the effect would be to put back in force at once an earlier order for integration at Central High.

Meanwhile, in Little Rock, registration for the coming school term got under way Friday on an all-white basis.

Arkansas's Gov. Orval Faubus was keeping the state legislature on standby alert for a possible emergency session. There has been speculation the legislature might close Central High to avoid another possible showdown like the one last year in which President Eisenhower sent troops to enforce court-ordered integration there.

In Norfolk, Va., Federal District Judge Walter E. Hoffman told a city attorney that if the Supreme Court permits a 2½ year delay in integration at Little Rock's Central High, he will not order Norfolk schools integrated.

The German government, therefore, said it is more appropriate that Khrushchev's proposals be discussed by the Big Four in the course of preparing for the summit meeting.

The note expressed no opinion on Khrushchev's proposals. It merely said that the Bonn government "welcomes any initiative calculated to open constructive possibilities" for the solution of European security problems.

It repeated Bonn's view that any settlement of these problems is "inseparably bound up with the solution of existing political problems." In German eyes that means principally the ending of the division of Germany.

aside the stay. Even if Whittaker should grant this request, there would not be enough time left to dispose of the legal formalities before reopening of Central High a week from next Tuesday.

So Marshall asked Whittaker to vacate Lemley's order granting the 2½ year delay.

Should this be done, the effect would be to put back in force at once an earlier order for integration at Central High.

Meanwhile, in Little Rock, registration for the coming school term got under way Friday on an all-white basis.

Arkansas's Gov. Orval Faubus was keeping the state legislature on standby alert for a possible emergency session. There has been speculation the legislature might close Central High to avoid another possible showdown like the one last year in which President Eisenhower sent troops to enforce court-ordered integration there.

In Norfolk, Va., Federal District Judge Walter E. Hoffman told a city attorney that if the Supreme Court permits a 2½ year delay in integration at Little Rock's Central High, he will not order Norfolk schools integrated.

Treaty

The German government, therefore, said it is more appropriate that Khrushchev's proposals be discussed by the Big Four in the course of preparing for the summit meeting.

The note expressed no opinion on Khrushchev's proposals. It merely said that the Bonn government "welcomes any initiative calculated to open constructive possibilities" for the solution of European security problems.

It repeated Bonn's view that any settlement of these problems is "inseparably bound up with the solution of existing political problems." In German eyes that means principally the ending of the division of Germany.

Lions Hear Official Of Columbiana Plant

A. A. DeMarco, manager of architectural sales promotion for the F. C. Russell Co. of Columbiana, traced the 20-year history of the organization and its progress in the building products field at the meeting of the Lions Club Friday afternoon at the Travelers Hotel.

Founded in 1938, the company has its national headquarters and a plant in Columbiana, other plants in Pandora, Cambridge and Toronto, Ont., a subsidiary in Hialeah, Fla., and warehouses in Los Angeles, Philadelphia and New York, DeMarco pointed out.

In its history, the company has pioneered the application of mass production techniques in the manufacture of doors and windows.

He demonstrated some of the company's products, explaining it manufactures both steel and aluminum doors and windows.

DeMarco was introduced by George McCullough, program chairman. Victor Smith, first vice president, presided.

Charles Herman, chairman, reminded members of the annual family picnic Wednesday afternoon at 3 at Thompson Park. Some 80 are expected to attend. Other committee members are Smith, William Kyle, Charles Heasley, James Johnston and Fred Yonz.

Labor Reform A Political Issue

President Eisenhower's labor reform request last January compared with the watered-down bill that failed to pass in the Democratic-controlled 85th Congress makes it clear why labor reform will be a political issue in the 1958 congressional campaign.

It will be a political issue again in the presidential campaign two years from now and will continue to be an issue until voters are satisfied with the way politicians have disposed of it.

Noting could be more far-fetched than the accusation that Republicans in the 85th Congress have made it an issue. They have reason to be thankful it finally has come out from under wraps, but Democrats have put labor reform on the political stump for the next few years by their obvious coddling of the leaders of labor.

"Clearing it with Sidney (Hillman)" was the password for the New Deal in 1940. The New Deal was geared to the labor movement before, during and after the war. All the now-well-publicized abuses of the movement have been made possible and condoned by laws that originated during the ascendancy of the Democratic party.

Thus, it is no surprise that a Democratic Congress in 1958 showed no interest in labor reform legislation, other than a slap-on-the-wrist proposal that would have had no more effect on basic reform than a mosquito bite has on an elephant.

Last January, President Eisenhower proposed a drastic drive on corruption in unions. He said voluntary reform was out of the question. He recommended a set of laws that would have made unions as responsible for straight dealing under the law as all other organizations of similar importance. He proposed that they be handled in the same way they would be handled if they had to make out income tax returns on their multi-million-dollar operations.

This program was scuttled without trace. Democratic politicians with obligations to union bosses did not even want to think about it. That is why it is certain to be a political issue this year — and until it is settled. Democrats have become the political sponsors of the union movement in all its aspects — good and bad. They have turned down a chance to do something about the bad aspects.

Did they think for a minute it wouldn't be a political issue if they refused to admit it should be?

Risk A Little To Win A Little

The caution of the Danes about exposure to nuclear radiation if the U.S. submarine Skate visited Copenhagen is praiseworthy but puzzling.

The public officials who barred the Skate from making port in their capital city's harbor are "playing it as safe" as they know how. But how do they know how? That, as another Dane once said, is the question.

There was a picture in the papers the other day of two submarine sailors from the Nautilus bussing a pair of English dollies goodbye at dockside. The girls seemed wholly unafraid, the sailors wholly free of ominous symptoms.

Thousands of people have worked for years in nuclear energy plants with no more debilitation than affects workers in general. It is entirely possible, of course, that someone may have miscalculated and all these people are going to come to untimely ends.

But it is equally possible they will be claimed by one or more of the familiar debilities, instead. Should they quit eating and exerting for fear of heart disease? Should they stay out of the sun to avoid actinic rays? Should they avoid all contact with their own kind lest they make contact with a communicable disease? Should they let their fear of the unknown and the half-known drive them into a hole in the ground.

This is a world in which you risk a little to win a little, and one of the elements of risk in it is radiation, which recently has been increased by knowledge of atomic fission and fusion. How much increase there has been is still guesswork, as is the extent of damage that might be traced to the increase.

Denmark, in all probability, will be lucky if it has nothing more to fear in what remains of 1958 than a submarine with a nuclear power plant. You can bet if sailors from the Skate could meet some Danish girls, the girls wouldn't be afraid of a little radioactivity.

Hammarskjold Is On The Way!

With an 80-0 U.N. General Assembly mandate to back him up, Dag Hammarskjold will go to the Middle East to get United States and British troops out of Lebanon and Jordan, in accordance with an Arab-proposed resolution.

Thus has the United States found a solution to a problem which looked insoluble from the moment it was created in mid-July by direct intervention in Lebanon and indirect intervention in the tangled politics of the Middle East.

Having committeed itself with military intervention, Washington would have to find a way to break off its commitment without appearing to back down. It is ironic that the secretary general of the United Nations, who looked upon intervention as an error and was visibly displeased, now has the task of working out the procedure for undoing what he thought never should have been done.

Yet, there was a net gain for the Arab world in Western intervention. It shocked the West into awareness of the Arabs' desire for self-determination. And apparently it shocked Arab politicians who never had been able to agree with one another into awareness of the need for a common front if they wanted self-determination.

How long they can hold together in a common cause is doubtful. John Foster Dulles doubts it will be long, but his misgivings will stiffen their determination, because dislike of what he stands for in regard to their aspirations has become the Arabs' strongest common cause.

A Bow To The Playlots

With summer vacation about over, it's time to give another pat on the back to the area playgrounds and their staffs for a job well done.

At the 14 playlots of the East Liverpool Recreation Council, as well as at other supervised play centers, wholesome programs of sports and recreation have been provided during the last two and a half months.

U.N. should call an emergency session to do something to save Dag Hammarskjold. The secretary general is as oppressed, threatened, overburdened and persecuted as any man or state. He is no sooner out of one trouble spot before they pack him off to a bigger and better one.

"Let Dag do it" has become U.N. slogan. His borders are violated and his security menaced almost weekly. Why not an immediate session to consider the following resolution:

HAVING considered the wear and tear on Mr. Hammarskjold, NOTING his pale complexion as a result of overwork and REAFFIRMING the charter's firm expression of dedication to fair play, the U.N. declares that:

WHEREAS our secretary general has been heavily imposed upon and looks pretty well "beat up" and —

WHEREAS this organization pledges sympathy, mercy and aid to suffering peoples, and —

WHEREAS this has been a hot tough summer for anybody denied a vacation, and —

WHEREAS the secretary general has been called upon to settle more fights than Wyatt Earp, and is not in a try-out for the leading role for a new movie "Around The World In 80 Headaches," and —

WHEREAS he could use a little show of brotherhood and peace of which we talk so much.

LONDON

Darkness will come at noon once more in Moscow and the prisons will be filled soon again with the tortured. And the Biggest Brother of them all, Comrade Nikita Khrushchev will execute Comrades Molotov and Malenkov and Kaganovich.

Victor Riesel

This is the opinion of men I've talked with all along the Bolshoi border. This is the opinion of the men who last summer handed me a written memo predicting in depth and detail the purge of Gen. Zhukov months before the number one military man was dumped and disappeared. This is the opinion of informed British Intelligence operatives.

To all of these groups, this means that Comrade Premier Khrushchev is deep in trouble and had to scurry to Mao Tse-tung in Peiping for support. He got it.

In return, Nikita Khrushchev pledged Russina hardware and political support to the Chinese Communist armies when they roll against Formosa within the next 18 months.

Nikita Khrushchev will re-Stalinize Russia now very swiftly because he suspects that Molotov and Malenkov are plotting against him. And he wants to take care of them before they can take advantage of his difficulties.

Whether they are or not is an unimportant as their lives—to him.

Molotov and Malenkov are the only two men who have the power to plot against Khrushchev. There no longer are any influential upper class Bolsheviks left. Try to name one.

THE SHREWDEST of European intelligence agents say that the coming purge will be evidence that Khrushchev is mounting one big bluff in this series of crises.

These sources corroborate previous reports in this column that Khrushchev's and Mao's industrial systems are not only creaking. They're cracking.

As I moved along the Bolshoi border, for example, there was the report from Hungary that there, as well as in Russia proper, manpower was so scarce that they are now forcing 14-year-old children into the factories.

The report of such action inside Russia came on July 15. The Hungarian report, meaning official notice from that government, was released Aug. 3.

The Hungarian minister of labor issued a formal decree authorizing the employment of 14-year-olds as "auxiliary workers" for a six-hour day.

This notice was distributed to the managers of all "State Enterprises." When a state enslaves kids on the day of their 14th birthday, that state is in trouble on the industrial front — deep trouble.

To roll on further, there is more than beer brewing in Czechoslovakia's Pilsen.

THE RUSSIANS made heavy industrial equipment in that area. But there is constant sabotage all over Czechia, in fact.

The workers are helping themselves to the property of the workers' state. They're stealing the socialist corporations blind.

So the secret police in Czechia and other satellite states are cracking down on "saboteurs of economy, pilferers of national or collective or socialist property."

Hundreds of working men are being arrested and jailed. They are imprisoned as "economic delinquents."

This is provoking resentment and slowdown in literally thousands of factories — on which the entire Soviet war machine rests.

As we go into the Red sunset, we find that in Poland, the Khrushchev emissaries recently told the Polish leaders not to take too seriously all this talk about the emancipation of the Polish workers.

This warning came just before the Polish crackdown on the Catholics. So Comrade Gomulka, Polish party boss, called in his country's labor leaders and told them that he had to renege on his pledge that he would permit strikes.

HE TOLD THEM that the Russians wanted more steel and heavy equipment and that strikes were outlawed.

Gomulka said that there will be no bargaining with the works council. Strikes are good only for capitalist nations. In a socialist state, walkouts are "anarchy."

In Romania things are so bad that the People's Assembly has just issued a decree ordering the death sentence for spoilage of material or even as little as a $1,000 damage to "people's property."

These, of course, are only the highlights in the European sector of Bolshoi brutality. In China, Mao told Khrushchev that the Chinese would need machinery, technicians and money to build steel plants, roads, aircraft, tools and spare parts.

The Communist world just doesn't have such equipment. Nor does it have shoes, or textiles, or housing — except where a few Westerners can see them on the roads to the airport.

Comrade Khrushchev can certainly talk a good war. He can launch a war. But he can't support one. He is bluffing. His economy is crumbling. Wait and see.

Basic Needs Of Elderly

By David Barnett

Sen. Alexander Wiley, 74 years old and still spry, has strong ideas on the problems of the senior citizens of America — the 14 million persons over the age of 65.

The Wisconsin Republican, who maintains close contacts with various organizations of elderly citizens, already is deeply involved in planning for the White House Conference on Aging.

The following is what the senator considers the "top needs of our elderly citizens("

1. A purpose. Too many of them "find that they are only dragging themselves through day after day of existence," he says. The future should hold more than "sitting and listening to radio or watching television and then, eventual death."

2. Esteem. The U.S. culture, the senator notes, honors "youth, good looks, glamor" and tends to play down "the judgment of age." Elderly citizens, he says, need respect and appreciation. To get it, they must try to understand youth and "youth must understand age."

3. Fruitful Activity. "There is nothing like a feeling that one can still put in an honest day's work and can still earn one's daily bread through one's skill," the senator says. "Obviously, we need to re-educate American employers to the value of utilizing skills of the middle and later years."

4. Housing. The U.S. must have housing designed so that the elderly can maintain their quarters relatively easily, he says. "It must be housing which is not so big as to be beyond their ability to keep neat or not so small as to make them feel they are living in a prison cubicle." Builders, he says, are just beginning to make use of congressional action designed to promote such construction.

5. Counseling. "Too few welfare departments and organizations have recognized their responsibilities for special guidance for our senior citizens," the senator contends. Counseling on jobs, recreation, special instruction and finance, designed specifically for the diverse problems of the elderly citizens, should be provided, he says.

6. Research. The senator maintains that additional basic research in geriatrics is essential. "A person at the age of 65 today has only the same approximate life expectancy from now on as would have a person at the age of 65 a century ago," he notes.

Through research, life for the elderly can be extended. "But," adds the senator, "it is not simply the number of years; it is the fullness of years, the happiness of years, which counts."

Judges View Court

By David Lawrence

Supreme Court Actions Criticized

The chief justices of the highest court in each of 10 states — seven of them in the North — have just issued the most penetrating criticism of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States that has emanated from any source in recent years.

David Lawrence

Coming at the very time when the Senate and the House were debating whether to pass laws to restrict the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and in some instances to reverse some of the points on which the court has erroneously interpreted the intent of Congress, the wording of the document is of more than passing interest.

The report of the committee on state - federal relationships was made public at Pasadena, where the annual meetings of the Conference of Chief Justices and of the American Bar Association are being held.

The chief justices of Massachusetts, New York State, Michigan, Wisconsin, Orgeon, Minnesota and Maryland can hardly be charged with a "Southern bias." Indeed, the report of the chief justices did not mention the "segregation" issue at all but deal solely with the abuse of the rights of the states by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The document says in part:

"We are now concerned specifically with the effect of judicial decisions upon the relations between the federal government and the state governments. Here we think that the over-all tendency of decisions of the Supreme Court over the last 25 years or more has been to press the extension of federal power and to press it rapidly.

"THERE HAVE been, of course, and still are very considerable differences within the court on these matters and there has been quite recently a growing recognition of the fact that our government is still a federal government and that the historic line which experience seems to justify between matters primarily of national concern and matters primarily of local concern should not be hastily or lightly obliterated.

"A number of justices have repeatedly demonstrated their awareness of problems of federalism and their recognition that federalism is still a living part of our system of government. . . .

"We believe that, in the fields with which we are concerned and as to which we feel entitled to speak, the Supreme Court too often has tended to adopt the role of policy maker without proper judicial restraint. We feel this is particularly the case in both of the great fields we have discussed — namely, the extent and extension of the federal power, and the supervision of state action by the Supreme Court by virtue of the Fourteenth Amendment.

"In the light of the immense power of the Supreme Court and its practical nonreviewability in most instances, no more important obligation rests upon it, in our view, than that of careful moderation in the exercise of its policy making role.

"We are not alone in our view that the court, in many cases arising under the Fourteenth Amendment, has assumed what seem to us primarily legislative powers. (See Judge Learned Hand on the Bill of Rights.)

"We do not believe that either the framers of the original Constitution or the possibly somewhat less gifted draftsmen of the Fourteenth Amendment ever contemplated that the Supreme Court would, or should, have the almost unlimited policy-making powers which it now exercises.

"It is strange, indeed, to reflect that, under a constitution which provides for a system of checks and balances and of distribution of power between national and state governments, one branch of one government — the Supreme Court — whould attain the immense and, in many respects, dominant power which it now wields. . . .

"IT HAS LONG been an American boast that we have a government of laws and not of men. We believe that any study of recent decisions of the Supreme Court will raise at least considerable doubt as to the validity of that boast.

"We find first that, in constitutional cases, unanimous decisions are comparative rarities and that multiple opinions, concurring or dissenting, are common occurrences.

"We find next that divisions on a 5-to-4 basis are quite frequent. We find further that, on some occasions, a majority of the court cannot be mustered in support of any one opinion and that the result of a given case may come from the divergent views of individual justices who happen to unite on one outcome or the other of the case before the court. . . .

"It seems strange that, under a constitutional doctrine which requires all others to recognize the Supreme Court's rulings on constitutional questions as binding adjudications of the meaning and application of the Constitution, the court itself has so frequently overturned its own decisions thereon, after the lapse of periods varying from 1 year to 75, or even 95 years. . . .

"The Constitution expressly sets up its own procedures for amendment, slow or cumbersome though they may be. If reasonable certainty and stability do not attach to a written Constitution, is it a constitution or is it a sham?

"These frequent differences and occasional overrulings of prior decisions in constitutional cases cause us grave concern as to whether individual views as to what is wise or desirable do not unconsciously override a more dispassionate consideration of what is or is not constitutionally warranted. . . .

"IT IS OUR earnest hope which we respectfully express, that that great court exercise to the full its power of judicial self-restraint by adhering firmly to its tremendous, strictly judicial powers and by eschewing, so far as possible, the exercise of essentially legislative powers when it is called upon to decide questions involving the validity of state action, whether it deems such action wise or unise."

The 10 chief justices declare, moreover, that at times the Supreme Court justices seem to "manifest an impatience with the slow workings of our federal system" and an unwillingness to wait for Congress "to make clear its intention to exercise the powers conferred upon it by the Constitution."

The report says also that the Supreme Court seems to be impatient with the "slow processes of amending the Constitution which that instrument provides" and that it should be adhering to "the limitations of judicial power," instead of "Merely giving effect to what it may deem desirable."

This is a scathing rebuke of the present Supreme Court, though the criticism does go back in some instances to previous personnel as well.

There can be no doubt that many men of the highest judicial experience in America have begun to question whether the attitude of the present court isn't really legislative instead of judicial.

THIRTY YEARS AGO — East Liverpool had a ratio of one telephone for each six inhabitants, while Liverpool, England, had one phone for each 23 inhabitants, according to figures issued by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Dr. W. C. McCord and J. C. Ryan of Columbiana were on a month's trip through the west.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Wellsville Glad-Dahlia Club's annual show was scheduled at the MacDonald school building, with more than 10,000 blossoms to be exhibited.

Traffic over the eastbound tracks of the Main St. trolley line between East Liverpool and Wellsville was interrupted for about half an hour when a truck owned by K. E. Franklin, loaded with coal, broke down in W. 8th St., near the Pentecostal Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — Lloyd Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jenkins of Broadway, Wellsville, was graduated from Indiana University, Bloomington, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and a major in Personnel Management.

Officers were elected when the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Dickey of Rogers.

Odd Facts

The name "gin," as applied to the alcoholic beverage, is a corruption of the French word "genievre," which refers to the juniper berries used for the flavoring element.

So far as is generally known, there is only one insect that can turn its head around as we can—the long-legged, long-bodied praying mantis.

If you find that you have added too much salt to your stew, add raw potatoes. They will absorb the extra salt, and they won't taste too salty.

Labor Reform A Political Issue

President Eisenhower's labor reform request last January compared with the watered-down bill that failed to pass in the Democratic-controlled 85th Congress makes it clear why labor reform will be a political issue in the 1958 congressional campaign.

It will be a political issue again in the presidential campaign two years from now and will continue to be an issue until voters are satisfied with the way politicians have disposed of it.

Noting could be more far-fetched than the accusation that Republicans in the 85th Congress have made it an issue. They have reason to be thankful it finally has come out from under wraps, but Democrats have put labor reform on the political stump for the next few years by their obvious coddling of the leaders of labor.

"Clearing it with Sidney (Hillman)" was the password for the New Deal in 1940. The New Deal was geared to the labor movement before, during and after the war. All the now-well-publicized abuses of the movement have been made possible and condoned by laws that originated during the ascendancy of the Democratic party.

Thus, it is no surprise that a Democratic Congress in 1958 showed no interest in labor reform legislation, other than a slap-on-the-wrist proposal that would have had no more effect on basic reform than a mosquito bite has on an elephant.

Last January, President Eisenhower proposed a drastic drive on corruption in unions. He said voluntary reform was out of the question. He recommended a set of laws that would have made unions as responsible for straight dealing under the law as all other organizations of similar importance. He proposed that they be handled in the same way they would be handled if they had to make out income tax returns on their multi-million-dollar operations.

This program was scuttled without trace. Democratic politicians with obligations to union bosses did not even want to think about it. That is why it is certain to be a political issue this year — and until it is settled. Democrats have become the political sponsors of the union movement in all its aspects — good and bad. They have turned down a chance to do something about the bad aspects.

Did they think for a minute it wouldn't be a political issue if they refused to admit it should be?

Risk A Little To Win A Little

The caution of the Danes about exposure to nuclear radiation if the U.S. submarine Skate visited Copenhagen is praiseworthy but puzzling.

The public officials who barred the Skate from making port in their capital city's harbor are "playing it as safe" as they know how. But how do they know how? That, as another Dane once said, is the question.

There was a picture in the papers the other day of two submarine sailors from the Nautilus bussing a pair of English dollies goodbye at dockside. The girls seemed wholly unafraid, the sailors wholly free of ominous symptoms.

Thousands of people have worked for years in nuclear energy plants with no more debilitation than affects workers in general. It is entirely possible, of course, that someone may have miscalculated and all these people are going to come to untimely ends.

But it is equally possible they will be claimed by one or more of the familiar debilities, instead. Should they quit eating and exerting for fear of heart disease? Should they stay out of the sun to avoid actinic rays? Should they avoid all contact with their own kind lest they make contact with a communicable disease? Should they let their fear of the unknown and the half-known drive them into a hole in the ground.

This is a world in which you risk a little to win a little, and one of the elements of risk in it is radiation, which recently has been increased by knowledge of atomic fission and fusion. How much increase there has been is still guesswork, as is the extent of damage that might be traced to the increase.

Denmark, in all probability, will be lucky if it has nothing more to fear in what remains of 1958 than a submarine with a nuclear power plant. You can bet if sailors from the Skate could meet some Danish girls, the girls wouldn't be afraid of a little radioactivity.

Hammarskjold Is On The Way!

With an 80-0 U.N. General Assembly mandate to back him up, Dag Hammarskjold will go to the Middle East to get United States and British troops out of Lebanon and Jordan, in accordance with an Arab-proposed resolution.

Thus has the United States found a solution to a problem which looked insoluble from the moment it was created in mid-July by direct intervention in Lebanon and indirect intervention in the tangled politics of the Middle East.

Having committeed itself with military intervention, Washington would have to find a way to break off its commitment without appearing to back down. It is ironic that the secretary general of the United Nations, who looked upon intervention as an error and was visibly displeased, now has the task of working out the procedure for undoing what he thought never should have been done.

Yet, there was a net gain for the Arab world in Western intervention. It shocked the West into awareness of the Arabs' desire for self-determination. And apparently it shocked Arab politicians who never had been able to agree with one another into awareness of the need for a common front if they wanted self-determination.

How long they can hold together in a common cause is doubtful. John Foster Dulles doubts it will be long, but his misgivings will stiffen their determination, because dislike of what he stands for in regard to their aspirations has become the Arabs' strongest common cause.

Hundreds of working men are being arrested and jailed. They are imprisoned as "economic delinquents."

This is provoking resentment and slowdown in literally thousands of factories — on which the entire Soviet war machine rests.

As we go into the Red sunset, we find that in Poland, the Khrushchev emissaries recently told the Polish leaders not to take too seriously all this talk about the emancipation of the Polish workers.

This warning came just before the Polish crackdown on the Catholics. So Comrade Gomulka, Polish party boss, called in his country's labor leaders and told them that he had to renege on his pledge that he would permit strikes.

HE TOLD THEM that the Russians wanted more steel and heavy equipment and that strikes were outlawed.

Gomulka said that there will be no bargaining with the works council. Strikes are good only for capitalist nations. In a socialist state, walkouts are "anarchy."

In Romania things are so bad that the People's Assembly has just issued a decree ordering the death sentence for spoilage of material or even as little as a $1,000 damage to "people's property."

These, of course, are only the highlights in the European sector of Bolshoi brutality. In China, Mao told Khrushchev that the Chinese would need machinery, technicians and money to build steel plants, roads, aircraft, tools and spare parts.

The Communist world just doesn't have such equipment. Nor does it have shoes, or textiles, or housing — except where a few Westerners can see them on the roads to the airport.

Comrade Khrushchev can certainly talk a good war. He can launch a war. But he can't support one. He is bluffing. His economy is crumbling. Wait and see.

Basic Needs Of Elderly

By David Barnett

Sen. Alexander Wiley, 74 years old and still spry, has strong ideas on the problems of the senior citizens of America — the 14 million persons over the age of 65.

The Wisconsin Republican, who maintains close contacts with various organizations of elderly citizens, already is deeply involved in planning for the White House Conference on Aging.

The following is what the senator considers the "top needs of our elderly citizens(''

1. A purpose. Too many of them "find that they are only dragging themselves through day after day of existence," he says. The future should hold more than "sitting and listening to radio or watching television and then, eventual death."

2. Esteem. The U.S. culture, the senator notes, honors "youth, good looks, glamor" and tends to play down "the judgment of age." Elderly citizens, he says, need respect and appreciation. To get it, they must try to understand youth and "youth must understand age."

3. Fruitful Activity. "There is nothing like a feeling that one can still put in an honest day's work and can still earn one's daily bread through one's skill," the senator says. "Obviously, we need to re-educate American employers to the value of utilizing skills of the middle and later years."

4. Housing. The U.S. must have housing designed so that the elderly can maintain their quarters relatively easily, he says. "It must be housing which is not so big as to be beyond their ability to keep neat or not so small as to make them feel they are living in a prison cubicle." Builders, he says, are just beginning to make use of congressional action designed to promote such construction.

5. Counseling. "Too few welfare departments and organizations have recognized their responsibilities for special guidance for our senior citizens," the senator contends. Counseling on jobs, recreation, special instruction and finance, designed specifically for the diverse problems of the elderly citizens, should be provided, he says.

6. Research. The senator maintains that additional basic research in geriatrics is essential. "A person at the age of 65 today has only the same approximate life expectancy from now on as would have a person at the age of 65 a century ago," he notes.

Through research, life for the elderly can be extended. "But," adds the senator, "it is not simply the number of years; it is the fullness of years, the happiness of years, which counts."

Judges View Court

Supreme Court Actions Criticized

The chief justices of the highest court in each of 10 states — seven of them in the North — have just issued the most penetrating criticism of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States that has emanated from any source in recent years.

David Lawrence

Coming at the very time when the Senate and the House were debating whether to pass laws to restrict the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and in some instances to reverse some of the points on which the court has erroneously interpreted the intent of Congress, the wording of the document is of more than passing interest.

The report of the committee on state - federal relationships was made public at Pasadena, where the annual meetings of the Conference of Chief Justices and of the American Bar Association are being held.

The chief justices of Massachusetts, New York State, Michigan, Wisconsin, Orgeon, Minnesota and Maryland can hardly be charged with a "Southern bias." Indeed, the report of the chief justices did not mention the "segregation" issue at all but deal solely with the abuse of the rights of the states by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The document says in part:

"We are now concerned specifically with the effect of judicial decisions upon the relations between the federal government and the state governments. Here we think that the over-all tendency of decisions of the Supreme Court over the last 25 years or more has been to press the extension of federal power and to press it rapidly.

"THERE HAVE been, of course, and still are very considerable differences within the court on these matters and there has been quite recently a growing recognition of the fact that our government is still a federal government and that the historic line which experience seems to justify between matters primarily of national concern and matters primarily of local concern should not be hastily or lightly obliterated.

"A number of justices have repeatedly demonstrated their awareness of problems of federalism and their recognition that federalism is still a living part of our system of government. . . .

"We believe that, in the fields with which we are concerned and as to which we feel entitled to speak, the Supreme Court too often has tended to adopt the role of policy maker without proper judicial restraint. We feel this is particularly the case in both of the great fields we have discussed — namely, the extent and extension of the federal power, and the supervision of state action by the Supreme Court by virtue of the Fourteenth Amendment.

"In the light of the immense power of the Supreme Court and its practical nonreviewability in most instances, no more important obligation rests upon it, in our view, than that of careful moderation in the exercise of its policy making role.

"We are not alone in our view that the court, in many cases arising under the Fourteenth Amendment, has assumed what seem to us primarily legislative powers. (See Judge Learned Hand on the Bill of Rights.)

"We do not believe that either the framers of the original Constitution or the possibly somewhat less gifted draftsmen of the Fourteenth Amendment ever contemplated that the Supreme Court would, or should, have the almost unlimited policy-making powers which it now exercises.

"It is strange, indeed, to reflect that, under a constitution which provides for a system of checks and balances and of distribution of power between national and state governments, one branch of one government — the Supreme Court — whould attain the immense and, in many respects, dominant power which it now wields. . . .

"IT HAS LONG been an American boast that we have a government of laws and not of men. We believe that any study of recent decisions of the Supreme Court will raise at least considerable doubt as to the validity of that boast.

"We find first that, in constitutional cases, unanimous decisions are comparative rarities and that multiple opinions, concurring or dissenting, are common occurrences.

"We find next that divisions on a 5-to-4 basis are quite frequent. We find further that, on some occasions, a majority of the court cannot be mustered in support of any one opinion and that the result of a given case may come from the divergent views of individual justices who happen to unite on one outcome or the other of the case before the court. . . .

"It seems strange that, under a constitutional doctrine which requires all others to recognize the Supreme Court's rulings on constitutional questions as binding adjudications of the meaning and application of the Constitution, the court itself has so frequently overturned its own decisions thereon, after the lapse of periods varying from 1 year to 75, or even 95 years. . . .

"The Constitution expressly sets up its own procedures for amendment, slow or cumbersome though they may be. If reasonable certainty and stability do not attach to a written Constitution, is it a constitution or is it a sham?

"These frequent differences and occasional overrulings of prior decisions in constitutional cases cause us grave concern as to whether individual views as to what is wise or desirable do not unconsciously override a more dispassionate consideration of what is or is not constitutionally warranted. . . .

"IT IS OUR earnest hope which we respectfully express, that that great court exercise to the full its power of judicial self-restraint by adhering firmly to its tremendous, strictly judicial powers and by eschewing, so far as possible, the exercise of essentially legislative powers when it is called upon to decide questions involving the validity of state action, whether it deems such action wise or unise."

The 10 chief justices declare, moreover, that at times the Supreme Court justices seem to "manifest an impatience with the slow workings of our federal system" and an unwillingness to wait for Congress "to make clear its intention to exercise the powers conferred upon it by the Constitution."

The report says also that the Supreme Court seems to be impatient with the "slow processes of amending the Constitution which that instrument provides" and that it should be adhering to "the limitations of judicial power," instead of "Merely giving effect to what it may deem desirable."

This is a scathing rebuke of the present Supreme Court, though the criticism does go back in some instances to previous personnel as well.

There can be no doubt that many men of the highest judicial experience in America have begun to question whether the attitude of the present court isn't really legislative instead of judicial.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — East Liverpool had a ratio of one telephone for each six inhabitants, while Liverpool, England, had one phone for each 23 inhabitants, according to figures issued by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Dr. W. C. McCord and J. C. Ryan of Columbiana were on a month's trip through the west.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Wellsville Glad-Dahlia Club's annual show was scheduled at the MacDonald school building, with more than 10,000 blossoms to be exhibited.

Traffic over the eastbound tracks of the Main St. trolley line between East Liverpool and Wellsville was interrupted for about half an hour when a truck owned by K. E. Franklin, loaded with coal, broke down in W. 8th St., near the Pentecostal Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — Lloyd Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jenkins of Broadway, Wellsville, was graduated from Indiana University, Bloomington, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and a major in Personnel Management.

Officers were elected when the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Dickey of Rogers.

Odd Facts

The name "gin," as applied to the alcoholic beverage, is a corruption of the French word "genievre," which refers to the juniper berries used for the flavoring element.

So far as is generally known, there is only one insect that can turn its head around as we can—the long-legged, long-bodied praying mantis.

If you find that you have added too much salt to your stew, add raw potatoes. They will absorb the extra salt, and they won't taste too salty.

And Governor Auctions Chickens

Singing Star Steals Show As Ohio State Fair Opens

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Visitors to the 104th Ohio State Fair will be pleased to learn that:

1. Tommy Sands is still in one piece, and:

2. Gov. C. William O'Neill sold the chickens at $4.35 a pound.

Little else is clear except that the 17,826 paid fairgoers at Friday's opening of the buckeye state annual exposition apparently had the time of their life.

Sands' predicament started when a howling horde of teen-agers, most of them female, broke through the south fence and rushed to the foot of the grand stand arena where their young idol was doing his guitar-strumming, hip - twisting, singing act.

Then later in the afternoon, while Sands was trying to catch 40 winks between shows, the teen-agers mobbed Harrison House, hoping for a glimpse of him.

About O'Neill and the chickens:

The state's chief executive showed his auctioneering ability by selling ten prize winning chickens at $4.35 a pound. The auction came after Cecil Nelson, 17, of Langsville, won the Chicken of Tomorrow contest with ten vantress cross broilers that weighed 38 pounds. O'Neill's salesmanship brought Cecil $165.30, the highest price on record.

The crowd was swelled by the thousands of youngsters who took advantage of free admission for Youth Day. The big youth event was the selection of Diana Smith, 17, as Youth Day Queen.

Diana, daughter of a dairy farmer from near Marion, is a 4-H Club member and is exhibiting three Holsteins in the 4-H Club cattle show at the fair.

In her court are Emily Kuhn of Logan County, Mary Wilson of Athens County, Freya Dafler of Auglaize County and Audrey Ekey of Jefferson County. All were queens at their county fairs.

There was a ceremony honoring President Benjamin Harrison, one of eight Ohio presidents to be honored during the eight-day fair.

There also were livestock judging contests.

Garnet Lovett, 19, of West Liberty, took the grand championship in the market lamb class with an exhibition of three southdown lambs. Her individual lamb won top honors in 4-H judging and second place in the junior fair.

Glen Hoffsis, 17, of Rt. 2, Bucyrus, showed the grand champion individual market lamb and took top honors in the FFA competition. His pen of three southdowns placed second in the junior fair.

Oiling Asked On 51 Streets

Work To Start After City Crew Trains

Fifty-one requests for the oiling or re-oiling of streets have been received by Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti's office.

The program will start as soon as a street department crew has completed training on a new asphalt distributor truck. It may possibly begin next week, the director said.

When the program was revealed to City Council, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr., head of the streets committee, set yesterday as the deadline for requests.

Meanwhile, the director said a street crew is picking up excess slag on W. 4th St. today. The director said many complaints were received about the slag and investigation showed an excess amount had been dumped.

He also urged motorists to drive carefully over the section of Avondale St. between Bradshaw Ave. and Minerva St., which has been reopened after being closed since early in July when a storm sewer broke and a section of the street caved in.

He pointed out Avondale is one of the streets which will be resurfaced or renewed between Bradshaw Ave. and Bank St. if the city's income tax is sustained.

AFL-CIO Urges Democrats Oppose Anti-Union Shop Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio AFL - CIO has asked the Democratic Party in Ohio to take a strong stand against the anti-union shop proposal during the coming election campaign.

The union made its recommendation Friday during public hearings at state Democratic headquarters. A Democratic platform subcommittee has been holding the hearings for two days to give party members a chance to submit proposals they think will help their candidates into office. The proposals will be studied for submission to the Democratic state convention here Sept. 5-6.

Elmer F. Cope, Ohio AFL-CIO secretary treasurer, submitted these planks for consideration of the committee:

"We oppose the so-called 'right-to-work' proposal as being unwarranted interference by government in free collective bargaining. We believe it would adversely effect the economic well being of Ohioans.

"We favor the prompt payment of supplemental unemployment benefits in accordance with contracts negotiated by industry and labor. We urge the payment of these funds without further delay in order to improve economic conditions in Ohio.

"We favor bringing employment compensation weekly benefits up to a level of 75 per cent of the average weekly wages and further support the permanent adoption of the increase in duration as enacted by the recent General Assembly.

"We advocate enactment of a state minimum wage law with a reasonable base.

"We pledge the enactment of a state fair employment practices act with effective enforcement provisions.

"We pledge increased benefits for injured workers, promptly paid without vexatious and prolonged administrative and appellate delays. We oppose any weakening of the basic workmen's compensation law."

Senator Cites Terrorists In Rights Issues

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) charged today that terrorists, operating as an organized unit, are behind a wave of 47 bombings in civil rights disputes.

"It appears that this defiance of law and order is part of an interstate conspiracy," Kennedy said in a speech prepared for the Senate.

He said:

"The bombings follow a discernable pattern, and they seem to be directed at those of our citizens who have expressed their constitutional right to free speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion, and freedom to vote."

Kennedy said schools, churches and homes have been the targets of such bombings.

Kennedy announced he was introducing a bill to let the FBI move in and investigate such attacks.

However, he said he realized it is too late, on this last scheduled day of the 1958 session, to hope for its passage.

Kennedy said the bill could serve as a medium for between-session study, in preparation for an attempt next year to pass similar legislation.

He said the Justice Department has been handicapped because, under existing law, it can't move in on such cases without first having some evidence of an interstate conspiracy.

Poor Little Rich Boy Provides Own Requiem—A Poem

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The poor little rich boy provided his own requiem — a simple poem of faith.

The lad was Timothy Getty, 12-year-old son of oil multimillionaire J. Paul Getty, said by some to be America's richest man.

Timothy's poem was read at his funeral Friday. Somehow it brightened the little Church of the Flowers in a way adult speakers could not.

Getty himself did not attend. His former wife, Mrs. Louise Dudley Lynch Getty, the boy's mother, was present.

Timothy was a friendly, outgoing boy, a bit on the philosophical side, perhaps because of illness. He underwent several operations for a brain tumor.

The highlight of the Christian Science rites was the reading of Timothy's poem:

"God protects me through the night.

"God will help me each fight.

"Because His love is oh, so dear,

"I know in God I cannot fear.

"God will show me, day by day.,

"If I follow in His way."

GOP State Chairman Ray C. Bliss said Friday that the Platform Committee will hold hearings Oct. 7-8 to draft planks for adoption by the convention.

Copy For Ballots Given Printers

The County Election Board Friday turned over official ballot copy for the Nov. 4 general election to the Wilson Printing House of East Liverpool.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the board certified 6 county judges and 33 questions and issues.

Three or four more subdivisions still are considering levies, but he pointed out any filed now under the uniform tax law require 60 per cent approval. The deadline is Sept. 15.

However, the board must have ballots available by Sept. 5 for servicemen under the so - called "Soldier Voting Law."

The questions and issues include two state amendments — the controversial "right-to-work" proposal and a county charter proposition — along with a countywide bond issue for a new detention home and a County Health District levy.

Other bond issues and levies are being submitted by cities, townships and school districts.

Congress

tacking on an amendment whereby the administration would have to appear before Congress again next year for a new look at the debt problem.

The Senate bill would authorize a permanent ceiling of 283 billion dollars, with a temporary hike to 288 billion through June 30, 1959.

The measure was returned to the House, whose version called for a 285-billion-dollar permanent limit and a ceiling of 288 billion through June 30, 1960.

The permanent debt ceiling now is 275 billions, with a temporary tip of 280 billions.

The Senate passed two other measures and sent them back to the House.

One was a compromise providing for a four-year, 900-million-dollar program of federal aid to education, heavily accented toward science and mathematics.

The other was a stopgap six-month extension of an act permitting the government to renegotiate defense contracts. This act carries authority for recovery of excessive profits and reduction of prices on military hardware.

After much wrangling, the Senate passed and sent to the House a compromise measure that would boost by 10 per cent benefits for 675,000 retired railroad workers and their dependents. Another provision would increase unemployment benefits for rail employes. And still another provision would grant more liberal injury compensation rights for longshoremen.

The House, meantime, passed and sent back to the Senate for final action a bill to extend the government's security program to all federal employes. The legislation is designed to overcome the effect of a Supreme Court decision declaring the loyalty-security program applies only to those employes in sensitive jobs.

Among bills sent to the White House Friday was one passed by the Senate to give the Federal Trade Commission jurisdiction over food chains and retail meat sales. The legislation, previously approved by the House, is aimed at tightening federal antritrust and monopoly controls over chain stores and the meat packing industries.

The Senate also joined the House in adopting a resolution favoring the creation of a permanent United Nations police force to preserve peace in the world's trouble spots.

On the budgetary front, the Senate Appropriations Committee went along with the House in yielding to President Eisenhower's veto of a 589-million-dollar item for the civil service retirement fund. The committee approved a six-billion-dollar catch-all measure to finance a score of government agencies, minus the sum for the retirement fund.

At the same time, Senate and House conferees agreed on a $1,354,000,000 military construction appropriation bill for the fiscal year that began July 1. The administration had asked $1,730,653,000.

City Labor Group Enters Track Dispute

A three - member board of labor representatives Friday arranged to confer soon with owners of the Waterford Park Race track in an effort to reopen negotiations between management and 97 striking mutuel clerks and other employes.

Other conferees will include James Mullen, regional director of the CIO and representative of Local 101 of the AFL-CIO International Building Service employes, with which striking Waterford clerks affliated.

Edwards and Atty. Frank Pietranton of Weirton will represent the track.

A number of the window employes formed a Track Guild, independent union.

A-Tests

make sure nobody cheated on any agreement to ban nuclear tests.

Britain also offered to suspend its tests after a projected series is completed this fall, and to participate in detailed diplomatic talks to set up the monitoring system conceived by the scientists at Geneva.

It was learned authoritatively that this was the thinking behind the Eisenhower proposal:

An end to nuclear tests is no disarmament measure in itself. But it may provide an opening wedge to achieve genuine disarmament. Eisenhower said U.S. tests might be resumed after one year unless a monitoring system was ripening and unless there were prospects of agreement on such disarmament measures as a cut-off in nuclear production, reduction in atomic-hydrogen stockpiles and troop cutbacks.

Gov. Ribicoff Set For 'Normal Day' After Collapsing

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Gov. Abraham Ribicoff planned to resume a "normal schedule" today after his collapse Friday night during a scholastic all-star football game at Bridgeport.

A spokesman for the governor said Ribicoff planned to keep speaking engagements at the state firemen's convention at Waterbury and at Stamford today and to make a Sunday appearance at Danbury.

"The governor is feeling fine today" added the spokesman.

The 48-year-old governor suffered what he later called a brief fainting spell after watching a violent play just in front of his box.

Dr. Michael Sulzycki, attending physician at the game rushed to the governor's side and revived him with cold compresses and smelling salts.

The governor walked from the field with his wife and a state policeman.

Paul Arnold, about 48, who was driving the newspaper delivery truck, and a helper, John Wilson, about 16, were also injured.

Police quoted witnesses saying the westbound Brown car apparently ran through a traffic light and collided with the northbound truck.

Bond Sale Completed For Hancock Schools

Transfer of around $1 million for Hancock County school improvements will be made from a Charleston bank to the state sinking fund following completion of the sale of the bond issue at New York this week.

County Supt. Robert Hall and R. G. Stewart, president of the Board of Education, completed the bond transaction with the Young-Moore Co. at New York, Thursday and the sum was deposited at New York for transfer to Charleston.

Supt. Hall said the money will be placed in the sinking fund from which the interest will be obtained, and will be withdrawn according to schedule for the financing of the eight county school projects.

The State Board of School finance has approved the county school budget of $2,039,766 it was announced at Charleston this week. The county budget last year was $2,038,724.

Singing Star Steals Show As Ohio State Fair Opens

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Visitors to the 104th Ohio State Fair will be pleased to learn that:

1. Tommy Sands is still in one piece, and:

2. Gov. C. William O'Neill sold the chickens at $4.35 a pound.

Little else is clear except that the 17,826 paid fairgoers at Friday's opening of the buckeye state annual exposition apparently had the time of their life.

Sands' predicament started when a howling horde of teen-agers, most of them female, broke through the south fence and rushed to the foot of the grand stand arena where their young idol was doing his guitar-strumming, hip - twisting, singing act.

Then later in the afternoon, while Sands was trying to catch 40 winks between shows, the teen-agers mobbed Harrison House, hoping for a glimpse of him.

About O'Neill and the chickens: The state's chief executive showed his auctioneering ability by selling ten prize winning chickens at $4.35 a pound. The auction came after Cecil Nelson, 17, of Langsville, won the Chicken of Tomorrow contest with ten vantress cross broilers that weighed 38 pounds. O'Neill's salesmanship brought Cecil $165.30, the highest price on record.

The crowd was swelled by the thousands of youngsters who took advantage of free admission for Youth Day. The big youth event was the selection of Diana Smith, 17, as Youth Day Queen.

Diana, daughter of a dairy farmer from near Marion, is a 4-H Club member and is exhibiting three Holsteins in the 4-H Club cattle show at the fair.

In her court are Emily Kuhn of Logan County, Mary Wilson of Athens County, Freya Dafler of Auglaize County and Audrey Ekey of Jefferson County. All were queens at their county fairs.

There was a ceremony honoring President Benjamin Harrison, one of eight Ohio presidents to be honored during the eight-day fair.

There also were livestock judging contests.

Garnet Lovett, 19, of West Liberty, took the grand championship in the market lamb class with an exhibition of three southdown lambs. Her individual lamb won top honors in 4-H judging and second place in the junior fair.

Glen Hoffsis, 17, of Rt. 2, Bucyrus, showed the grand champion individual market lamb and took top honors in the FFA competition. His pen of three southdowns placed second in the junior fair.

Senator Cites Terrorists In Rights Issues

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) charged today that terrorists, operating as an organized unit, are behind a wave of 47 bombings in civil rights disputes.

"It appears that this defiance of law and order is part of an interstate conspiracy," Kennedy said in a speech prepared for the Senate.

He said:

"The bombings follow a discernable pattern, and they seem to be directed at those of our citizens who have expressed their constitutional right to free speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of religion, and freedom to vote."

Kennedy said schools, churches and homes have been the targets of such bombings.

Kennedy announced he was introducing a bill to let the FBI move in and investigate such attacks.

However, he said he realized it is too late, on this last scheduled day of the 1958 session, to hope for its passage.

Kennedy said the bill could serve as a medium for between-session study, in preparation for an attempt next year to pass similar legislation.

He said the Justice Department has been handicapped because, under existing law, it can't move in on such cases without first having some evidence of an interstate conspiracy.

Copy For Ballots Given Printers

The County Election Board Friday turned over official ballot copy for the Nov. 4 general election to the Wilson Printing House of East Liverpool.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the board certified 6 county judges and 33 questions and issues.

Three or four more subdivisions still are considering levies, but he pointed out any filed now under the uniform tax law require 60 per cent approval. The deadline is Sept. 15.

However, the board must have ballots available by Sept. 5 for servicemen under the so - called "Soldier Voting Law."

The questions and issues include two state amendments — the controverisal "right-to-work" proposal and a county charter proposition — along with a countywide bond issue for a new detention home and a County Health District levy.

Other bond issues and levies are being submitted by cities, townships and school districts.

Oiling Asked On 51 Streets

Work To Start After City Crew Trains

Fifty-one requests for the oiling or re-oiling of streets have been received by Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti's office.

The program will start as soon as a street department crew has completed training on a new asphalt distributor truck. It may possibly begin next week, the director said.

When the program was revealed to City Council, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr., head of the streets committee, set yesterday as the deadline for requests.

Meanwhile, the director said a street crew is picking up excess slag on W. 4th St. today. The director said many complaints were received about the slag and investigation showed an excess amount had been dumped.

He also urged motorists to drive carefully over the section of Avondale St. between Bradshaw Ave. and Minerva St., which has been reopened after being closed since early in July when a storm sewer broke and a section of the street caved in.

He pointed out Avondale is one of the streets which will be resurfaced or renewed between Bradshaw Ave. and Bank St. if the city's income tax is sustained.

Poor Little Rich Boy Provides Own Requiem–A Poem

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The poor little rich boy provided his own requiem — a simple poem of faith.

The lad was Timothy Getty, 12-year-old son of oil multimillionaire J. Paul Getty, said by some to be America's richest man.

Timothy's poem was read at his funeral Friday. Somehow it brightened the little Church of the Flowers in a way adult speakers could not.

Getty himself did not attend. His former wife, Mrs. Louise Dudley Lynch Getty, the boy's mother, was present.

Timothy was a friendly, outgoing boy, a bit on the philosophical side, perhaps because of illness. He underwent several operations for a brain tumor.

The highlight of the Christian Science rites was the reading of Timothy's poem:

"God protects me through the night.

"God will help me each fight.

"Because His love is oh, so dear,

"I know in God I cannot fear.

"God will show me, day by day.,

"If I follow in His way."

Other conferees will include James Mullen, regional director of the CIO and representative of Local 101 of the AFL-CIO International Building Service employes, with which striking Waterford clerks affliated.

Edwards and Atty. Frank Pietranton of Weirton will represent the track.

A number of the window employes formed a Track Guild, independent union.

The guards all will be women between 21 and 50, preferably with children in school and residents of the area in which they will be assigned. The job will pay $1 an hour, the director said.

AFL-CIO Urges Democrats Oppose Anti-Union Shop Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio AFL - CIO has asked the Democratic Party in Ohio to take a strong stand against the anti-union shop proposal during the coming election campaign.

The union made its recommendation Friday during public hearings at state Democratic headquarters. A Democratic platform subcommittee has been holding the hearings for two days to give party members a chance to submit proposals they think will help their candidates into office. The proposals will be studied for submission to the Democratic state convention here Sept. 5-6.

Elmer F. Cope, Ohio AFL-CIO secretary treasurer, submitted these planks for consideration of the committee:

"We oppose the so-called 'right-to-work' proposal as being unwarranted interference by government in free collective bargaining. We believe it would adversely effect the economic well being of Ohioans.

"We favor the prompt payment of supplemental unemployment benefits in accordance with contracts negotiated by industry and labor. We urge the payment of these funds without further delay in order to improve economic conditions in Ohio.

"We favor bringing employment compensation weekly benefits up to a level of 75 per cent of the average weekly wages and further support the permanent adoption of the increase in duration as enacted by the recent General Assembly.

"We advocate enactment of a state minimum wage law with a reasonable base.

"We pledge the enactment of a state fair employment practices act with effective enforcement provisions.

"We pledge increased benefits for injured workers, promptly paid without vexatious and prolonged administrative and appellate delays. We oppose any weakening of the basic workmen's compensation law."

Congress

tacking on an amendment whereby the administration would have to appear before Congress again next year for a new look at the debt problem.

The Senate bill would authorize a permanent ceiling of 283 billion dollars, with a temporary hike to 288 billion through June 30, 1959.

The measure was returned to the House, whose version called for a 285-billion-dollar permanent limit and a ceiling of 288 billion through June 30, 1960.

The permanent debt ceiling now is 275 billions, with a temporary tip of 280 billions.

The Senate passed two other measures and sent them back to the House.

One was a compromise providing for a four-year, 900-million-dollar program of federal aid to education, heavily accented toward science and mathematics.

The other was a stopgap six-month extension of an act permitting the government to renegotiate defense contracts. This act carries authority for recovery of excessive profits and reduction of prices on military hardware.

After much wrangling, the Senate passed and sent to the House a compromise measure that would boost by 10 per cent benefits for 675,000 retired railroad workers and their dependents. Another provision would increase unemployment benefits for rail employes. And still another provision would grant more liberal injury compensation rights for longshoremen.

The House, meantime, passed and sent back to the Senate for final action a bill to extend the government's security program to all federal employes. The legislation is designed to overcome the effect of a Supreme Court decision declaring the loyalty-security program applies only to those employes in sensitive jobs.

Among bills sent to the White House Friday was one passed by the Senate to give the Federal Trade Commission jurisdiction over food chains and retail meat sales. The legislation, previously approved by the House, is aimed at tightening federal antritrust and monopoly controls over chain stores and the meat packing industries.

The Senate also joined the House in adopting a resolution favoring the creation of a permanent United Nations police force to preserve peace in the world's trouble spots.

On the budgetary front, the Senate Appropriations Committee went along with the House in yielding to President Eisenhower's veto of a 589-million-dollar item for the civil service retirement fund. The committee approved a six-billion-dollar catchall measure to finance a score of government agencies, minus the sum for the retirement fund.

At the same time, Senate and House conferees agreed on a $1,354,000,000 military construction appropriation bill for the fiscal year that began July 1. The administration had asked $1,730,653,000.

Motorist Fined

LISBON — Wayne D. Strong, 19, of R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty Friday night before Mayor John Todd to a charge of passing without the assured clear distance. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

A-Tests

make sure nobody cheated on any agreement to ban nuclear tests.

Britain also offered to suspend its tests after a projected series is completed this fall, and to participate in detailed diplomatic talks to set up the monitoring system conceived by the scientists at Geneva.

It was learned authoritatively that this was the thinking behind the Eisenhower proposal:

An end to nuclear tests is no disarmament measure in itself. But it may provide an opening wedge to achieve genuine disarmament. Eisenhower said U.S. tests might be resumed after one year unless a monitoring system was ripening and unless there were prospects of agreement on such disarmament measures as a cut-off in nuclear production, reduction in atomic-hydrogen stockpiles and troop cutbacks.

Gov. Ribicoff Set For 'Normal Day' After Collapsing

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Gov. Abraham Ribicoff planned to resume a "normal schedule" today after his collapse Friday night during a scholastic all-star football game at Bridgeport.

A spokesman for the governor said Ribicoff planned to keep speaking engagements at the state firemen's convention at Waterbury and at Stamford today and to make a Sunday appearance at Danbury.

"The governor is feeling fine today" added the spokesman.

The 48-year-old governor suffered what he later called a brief fainting spell after watching a violent play just in front of his box.

Dr. Michael Sulzycki, attending physician at the game rushed to the governor's side and revived him with cold compresses and smelling salts.

The governor walked from the field with his wife and a state policeman.

Bond Sale Completed For Hancock Schools

Transfer of around $1 million for Hancock County school improvements will be made from a Charleston bank to the state sinking fund following completion of the sale of the bond issue at New York this week.

County Supt. Robert Hall and R. G. Stewart, president of the Board of Education, completed the bond transaction with the Young-Moore Co. at New York, Thursday and the sum was deposited at New York for transfer to Charleston.

Supt. Hall said the money will be placed in the sinking fund from which the interest will be obtained, and will be withdrawn according to schedule for the financing of the eight county school projects.

The State Board of School finance has approved the county school budget of $2,039,766 it was announced at Charleston this week. The county budget last year was $2,038,724.

The True Quality Of Wisdom

When the Queen of Sheba visited King Solomon, the one thing which impressed her most was the eagerness of his people to be near him and serve him.

The Queen was impressed, of course, with Solomon's wealth, with his luxurious temple, his personal power and the prestige and influence of his kingdom. This is what she had come to see.

But the one thing which she carried away as a lasting impression was the quality in the man that brought from his subjects an eagerness, an enthusiasm, a loyalty and a faithfulness in their service to him.

"Happy are thy men," she said to him. "Happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear they wisdom."

THE QUEEN attributed this situation to Solomon's great wisdom. But, to appreciate what she had in mind, we need to define wisdom, what it truly is, how it differs from being merely wise or smart, and we need to understand why Solomon's brand of wisdom had special appeal to his people.

Wisdom is the ability to judge soundly and deal sagaciously with facts, especially as they relate to life. Solomon had this ability.

To be wise is something more. And to be merely wise means to be shrewd, calculating, crafty, subtle. Solomon had none of these traits.

A PERSON who is wise does not necessarily have wisdom, and one who possesses the true quality of wisdom does not resort to so-called wise practices.

Solomon's people stood continually before him, eager to serve him, because of his understanding of life, his ability to render sound judgment and deal knowingly with facts.

They were not subjected to shrewd maneuverings, subtle implications, crafty dealings and calculated moves. They were not victims of a sharp, devious operator.

They were happy to be near him because they got something really worthwhile out of being in his presence!

HAVE YOU EVER known a man who in this respect was like Solomon? Have you seen this same brand of wisdom in a boss, a parent, a pastor, a friend or acquaintance?

Have you made note how others are eager to be near him, anxious to serve him, reluctant to leave him? Have you observed the loyalty and devotion accorded him?

There are such men — and women — today. And their standing with their friends and associates has nothing to do with wealth, material gain, luxury or favory.

They are sought after because fairness and justice and honesty are fundamental with them. Their wisdom is founded on a wholesome respect for and understanding of life, and its problems.

A young man expressed it in quite a different way one time:

"Let's stay at your house tonight," he said to his date, "and spend the evening with your Mother and Dad; they are so near!"

HUMANITY CALLING!

Major William Murtaugh

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

Long ago, William Booth, Founder of The Salvation Army, and its first General, learned that it was difficult to preach the Gospel to a hungry person; hence, he sought to make a practical application of Christianity to the poverty stricken masses, advocating a philosphy of SOAP, SOUP and SALVATION!

He valiantly championed the cause of the downtrodden, and his motto—"A MAN MAY BE DOWN BUT HE'S NEVER OUT"—is well-known throughout the world today.

The Salvation Army has built up such a reputation for considering the physical needs of less fortunate people, that it poses quite a challenge to live up to the faith and confidence that is reposed in us. We have no "magic formula" for meeting these temporal needs. Our ability to serve in this manner is gauged by the interest and support of charitably-minded persons. As you know, concern for others is not always the first consideration in everyone's budget.

If you feel a hungry person should be given a hearty meal, or a destitute family be provided for adequately—will you back us up accordingly?

It takes more than a token offering to MEET HUMAN NEEDS WITH HUMAN DEEDS. May God ever guide us in our responsibilitys toward OTHERS.

The True Quality Of Wisdom

When the Queen of Sheba visited King Solomon, the one thing which impressed her most was the eagerness of his people to be near him and serve him.

The Queen was impressed, of course, with Solomon's wealth, with his luxurious temple, his personal power and the prestige and influence of his kingdom. This is what she had come to see.

But the one thing which she carried away as a lasting impression was the quality in the man that brought from his subjects an eagerness, an enthusiasm, a loyalty and a faithfulness in their service to him.

"Happy are thy men," she said to him. "Happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear they wisdom."

THE QUEEN attributed this situation to Solomon's great wisdom. But, to appreciate what she had in mind, we need to define wisdom, what it truly is, how it differs from being merely wise or smart, and we need to understand why Solomon's brand of wisdom had special appeal to his people.

Wisdom is the ability to judge soundly and deal sagaciously with facts, especially as they relate to life. Solomon had this ability.

To be wise is something more. And to be merely wise means to be shrewd, calculating, crafty, subtle. Solomon had none of these traits.

A PERSON who is wise does not necessarily have wisdom, and one who possesses the true quality of wisdom does not resort to so-called wise practices.

Solomon's people stood continually before him, eager to serve him, because of his understanding of life, his ability to render sound judgment and deal knowingly with facts.

They were not subjected to shrewd maneuverings, subtle implications, crafty dealings and calculated moves. They were not victims of a sharp, devious operator.

They were happy to be near him because they got something really worthwhile out of being in his presence!

HAVE YOU EVER known a man who in this respect was like Solomon? Have you seen this same brand of wisdom in a boss, a parent, a pastor, a friend or acquaintance?

Have you made note how others are eager to be near him, anxious to serve him, reluctant to leave him? Have you observed the loyalty and devotion accorded him?

There are such men — and women — today. And their standing with their friends and associates has nothing to do with wealth, material gain, luxury or favory.

They are sought after because fairness and justice and honesty are fundamental with them. Their wisdom is founded on a wholesome respect for and understanding of life, and its problems.

A young man expressed it in quite a different way one time:

"Let's stay at your house tonight," he said to his date, "and spend the evening with your Mother and Dad; they are so near!"

HUMANITY CALLING!

by

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

Long ago, William Booth, Founder of The Salvation Army, and its first General, learned that it was difficult to preach the Gospel to a hungry person; hence, he sought to make a practical application of Christianity to the poverty stricken masses, advocating a philosphy of SOAP, SOUP and SALVATION!

He valiantly championed the cause of the downtrodden, and his motto—"A MAN MAY BE DOWN BUT HE'S NEVER OUT"—is well-known throughout the world today.

The Salvation Army has built up such a reputation for considering the physical needs of less fortunate people, that it poses quite a challenge to live up to the faith and confidence that is reposed in us. We have no "magic formula" for meeting these temporal needs. Our ability to serve in this manner is gauged by the interest and support of charitably-minded persons. As you know, concern for others is not always the first consideration in everyone's budget.

If you feel a hungry person should be given a hearty meal, or a destitute family be provided for adequately—will you back us up accordingly?

It takes more than a token offering to MEET HUMAN NEEDS WITH HUMAN DEEDS. May God ever guide us in our responsibilitys toward OTHERS.

A Formula For Solving Problems

"It's too bad," the man sitting next to me at the luncheon said, "that there isn't a simple formula for solving one's problems." "Oh, but there is," I told him. "Well, I'd like to have it. Please give it to me," he replied doubtfully. I told him to take the menu in front of him, turn it over to the blank side and write down the formula. "Number one," I began, "pray twenty-five times a day." He looked at me in surprise. "I'm not where I can pray twenty-five times a day."

"IT'S NOT so hard. You can use fragments of time to say quick prayers. It's not necessary to stop everything to offer formal prayers. Pray when you get out of bed in the morning. Say a prayer at breakfast. Before you leave for work, have a brief prayer with your wife and family. Then, on your way down the street have a little talk with God.

On the bus you can sit there and pray. When you are going to write a letter, before you begin quietly think a sentence prayer that you may say the right thing. When you pick up the telephone, ask the Lord, under your breath, to help you say what's right. So go through the day with a series of such "flash" prayers. Add them up; and twenty-five times in the day you have prayed. Don't you think you can do that?"

"That's a new slant. Sounds sensible. I'll try it," the man said.

"Next," I continued, "every night before going to bed, read a chapter from the Bible." I suggested that he read beginning with Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; then some of St. Paul's Epistles; and then, one by one, the Psalms. A chater a night does wonders in reconditioning your thinking, I told him, because as you get into bed your mind becomes quiet, and what you read then will sink and work in your mind while you are asleep.

HE HAD BEEN telling me earlier about how much money he wanted to make and I asked him, "How much are you giving to your church now?"

"I gave a dollar the last time I was there."

"When was that?"

"Easter," he said, in embarrassment.

I told him he had been coasting along quite some time on that one dollar and explained to him about the Old Testament law of tithing. The Bible says, if you tithe, blessings flow into your life. And that means giving 10 per cent of your income to God's work.

He asked with a grin whether it wouldn't be all right if he settled for 5 per cent. But I told him it would have to be 10 and that, moreover, he would have to start going to his church at least three Sundays each month.

Well, he wrote all this down, folded up the menu and put it in his pocket. "Tough formula." he remarked, "but I need something. Life's slipping on me."

A YEAR later I got a letter from him. He said that I had been right; what I had given him really worked. It was indeed a formula for solving all problems. "In fact," he wrote, "my problems no longer seem so difficult. I've got hold of new power, fresh insights."

He was particularly enthusiastic about the practice of praying twenty-five times a day and said it was the most wonderful thing that had ever come into his life.

"I have come to believe," he wrote, "that God is actually with me. And, as for reading the Bible one chapter a day, I never knew before, Doctor, what wonderful answers to my problems I could find in its pages!"

This man had discovered an old truth. He had learned that a person can, with the Lord's help, solve all his own problems. And so, with the help of God, can you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day | Book | Chapter | Verses |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sunday | Matthew | 7 | 1-5 |
| Monday | Matthew | 6 | 1-4 |
| Tuesday | Matthew | 6 | 5-15 |
| Wednesday | Matthew | 6 | 16-23 |
| Thursday | Matthew | 7 | 13-20 |
| Friday | James | 3 | 17-18 |
| Saturday | II Peter | 1 | 1-8 |

Apples are big business! About 150 million bushels are grown in the U. S. each year.

Perhaps that's why this lad wonders if he could find still another use for the apple. Or perhaps he only wonders if there's a worm in it. If there is, will he toss it away, complaining it's no good?

Some people say they don't go to Church because there are hypocrites in the Church. Then you might as well chuck out that basket of apples in the cellar. There's probably at least one worm in it. But really, does that affect the goodness and usefulness of all the rest?

The Church is big business too, guiding millions of souls each year. If you will attend regularly, earnestly worshipping and sincerely watching for a place where you can be of service, you will give and gain a life-full that's worthwhile. Then you will forget there might be a hypocrite, or a wormy apple around.

By Norman Vincent Peale

A Formula For Solving Problems

"It's too bad," the man sitting next to me at the luncheon said, "that there isn't a simple formula for solving one's problems." "Oh, but there is," I told him. "Well, I'd like to have it. Please give it to me," he replied doubtfully. I told him to take the menu in front of him, turn it over to the blank side and write down the formula. "Number one," I began, "pray twenty-five times a day." He looked at me in surprise. "I'm not where I can pray twenty-five times a day."

"IT'S NOT so hard. You can use fragments of time to say quick prayers. It's not necessary to stop everything to offer formal prayers. Pray when you get out of bed in the morning. Say a prayer at breakfast. Before you leave for work, have a brief prayer with your wife and family. Then, on your way down the street have a little talk with God.

On the bus you can sit there and pray. When you are going to write a letter, before you begin quietly think a sentence prayer that you may say the right thing. When you pick up the telephone, ask the Lord, under your breath, to help you say what's right. So go through the day with a series of such "flash" prayers. Add them up; and twenty-five times in the day you have prayed. Don't you think you can do that?"

"That's a new slant. Sounds sensible. I'll try it," the man said.

"Next," I continued, "every night before going to bed, read a chapter from the Bible." I suggested that he read beginning with Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; then some of St. Paul's Epistles; and then, one by one, the Psalms. A chater a night does wonders in reconditioning your thinking, I told him, because as you get into bed your mind becomes quiet, and what you read then will sink and work in your mind while you are asleep.

HE HAD BEEN telling me earlier about how much money he wanted to make and I asked him, "How much are you giving to your church now?"

"I gave a dollar the last time I was there."

"When was that?"

"Easter," he said, in embarrassment.

I told him he had been coasting along quite some time on that one dollar and explained to him about the Old Testament law of tithing. The Bible says, if you tithe, blessings flow into your life. And that means giving 10 per cent of your income to God's work.

He asked with a grin whether it wouldn't be all right if he settled for 5 per cent. But I told him it would have to be 10 and that, moreover, he would have to start going to his church at least three Sundays each month.

Well, he wrote all this down, folded up the menu and put it in his pocket. "Tough formula," he remarked, "but I need something. Life's slipping on me."

A YEAR later I got a letter from him. He said that I had been right; what I had given him really worked. It was indeed a formula for solving all problems. "In fact," he wrote, "my problems no longer seem so difficult. I've got hold of new power, fresh insights."

He was particularly enthusiastic about the practice of praying twenty-five times a day and said it was the most wonderful thing that had ever come into his life.

"I have come to believe," he wrote, "that God is actually with me. And, as for reading the Bible one chapter a day, I never knew before, Doctor, what wonderful answers to my problems I could find in its pages!"

This man had discovered an old truth. He had learned that a person can, with the Lord's help, solve all his own problems. And so, with the help of God, can you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day | Book | Chapter | Verses |
|---|---|---|---|
| Sunday | Matthew | 7 | 1-5 |
| Monday | Matthew | 6 | 1-4 |
| Tuesday | Matthew | 6 | 5-15 |
| Wednesday | Matthew | 6 | 16-23 |
| Thursday | Matthew | 7 | 13-20 |
| Friday | James | 3 | 17-18 |
| Saturday | II Peter | 1 | 1-8 |

Apples are big business! About 150 million bushels are grown in the U. S. each year.

Perhaps that's why this lad wonders if he could find still another use for the apple. Or perhaps he only wonders if there's a worm in it. If there is, will he toss it away, complaining it's no good?

Some people say they don't go to Church because there are hypocrites in the Church. Then you might as well chuck out that basket of apples in the cellar. There's probably at least one worm in it. But really, does that affect the goodness and usefulness of all the rest?

The Church is big business too, guiding millions of souls each year. If you will attend regularly, earnestly worshipping and sincerely watching for a place where you can be of service, you will give and gain a life-full that's worthwhile. Then you will forget there might be a hypocrite, or a wormy apple around.

2 Rugged Farm Youths Win In National Plowing Contest

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Two rugged farm youths with a talent for cutting a wide, deep furrow reigned from the pinnacle of American plowdom today.

Their victories in the 16th National Plowing Contest were a tribute to youth.

George W. Lininger, of Springport, R.D. 2, Mich., wound up as the winner of the level land plowing contest Friday. The bashful, 21-year-old dairy farmer was the youngest ever to win this national event.

His triumph came the day after Charles L. Stamp, 23, Watkins Glen, N. Y., fruit grower, grabbed top honors in contour plowing. He was the second most youthful farmer to ever wind up as America's premier plowman.

Both will represent the United States in the world championships in Northern Ireland next year.

Clad in dungarees and a bright blue and white plaid shirt, Lininger was a picture of surprise when judges broke the news of his triumph.

"I was surprised to win" he said with a happy grin. "It was just plain luck."

His furrow work on a half-acre plot brought him 370 points out of a possible 400. The runnerup was David H. Bay, 30, a dairy farmer from Canandaigua, R. D. 1, Ontario County, N. Y.

Some 100,000 farmers and other onlookers turned out for the second and final day of the plowing contests and soil conservation exposition. The first day crowd on Thursday was estimated at about 90,000.

2 Rugged Farm Youths Win In National Plowing Contest

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Two rugged farm youths with a talent for cutting a wide, deep furrow reigned from the pinnacle of American plowdom today.

Their victories in the 16th National Plowing Contest were a tribute to youth.

George W. Lininger, of Springport, R.D. 2, Mich., wound up as the winner of the level land plowing contest Friday. The bashful, 21-year-old dairy farmer was the youngest ever to win this national event.

His triumph came the day after Charles L. Stamp, 23, Watkins Glen, N. Y., fruit grower, grabbed top honors in contour plowing. He was the second most youthful farmer to ever wind up as America's premier plowman.

Both will represent the United States in the world championships in Northern Ireland next year.

Clad in dungarees and a bright blue and white plaid shirt, Lininger was a picture of surprise when judges broke the news of his triumph.

"I was surprised to win" he said with a happy grin. "It was just plain luck."

His furrow work on a half-acre plot brought him 370 points out of a possible 400. The runnerup was David H. Bay, 30, a dairy farmer from Canandaigua, R. D. 1, Ontario County, N. Y.

Some 100,000 farmers and other onlookers turned out for the second and final day of the plowing contests and soil conservation exposition. The first day crowd on Thursday was estimated at about 90,000.

Do-It-Yourself Housing Project Due Dedication

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — Proud citizens and federal officials gather here today to dedicate Washington Terrace, a unique do-it-yourself project for home owners.

Built as a World War II housing project, the 1,400 homes were sold to the occupants in 1950 after the tenants banded together to form a corporation.

Homes were remodeled, some were added and others moved, all under Utah's first federal urban renewal program. The corporation formed by the tenants is wholly free of debt and residents of Washington Terrace could turn it into Utah's sixth largest city if they choose to incorporate.

Businessman-Pastor Injects New Life Into Historic Church

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A businessman-pastor is putting new life into the historic Little Church of La Villita, one of the oldest Protestant churches in San Antonio.

In less than two years, the Rev. R. Paul Soupiset has converted it from a sometime evangelistic temple and lodge hall into a city-owned downtown retreat for business people.

The Rev. Mr. Soupiset, a licensed Methodist minister, has been pastor of the Little Church since late in 1956 when he arrived from Houston to manage a women's apparel store.

"The aim of this effort," he says, "is based upon a much needed ministry to those individuals in the market place who for the most part profess no church affiliation.

"We are not establishing a new church but attempting to bolster those that already exist."

Each evening service is attended by people of a variety of denominations. Since it's located only four blocks from the Alamo, the shrine of Texas liberty, many tourists also drop in for prayer or rest.

The Rev. Mr. Soupiset and his assistant, Robert Harmon, a traveling salesman for a metal products firm, serve without pay. The church's expenses and charitable activities are supported by gifts.

The church considers that it was founded in 1844 when the Rev. John Wesley de Vilbis, the first Methodist minister in San Antonio, bought the site and put a bell on the lot.

Each Sunday, he would summon his flock with the bell and then lead them to services in the court house a few blocks away. The present church was not built until 1876.

Twenty years later, it became a Protestant Episcopal school for Negro children and, during World War II, it housed the Red Cross and a men's Bible class.

The city of San Antonio bought the church in 1945 as part of its program for restoring La Villita as a Texas village of frontier days, similar to Virginia's colonial Williamsburg.

Jordan Reported Ready To Resume U.A.R. Relations

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Premier Samir Rifai said today Jordan would be willing to consider resuming diplomatic relations with the United Arab Republic if President Nasser takes the initiative.

Rifai also indicated he was willing to meet Nasser, who has been accused by Jordan of attempting to overthrow the Jordan government and assassinate King Hussein.

The premier's conciliatory statements at a news conference came amid other indications that long-frozen relations between Jordan and the U. A. R. were warming up. Friendly messages were exchanged with the U. A. R.-dominated Arab League and prospects were seen for reopening of Jordan's border with the U. A. R. province of Syria.

Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) did not vote on the measure, but was announced as favoring the increase.

Jordan Reported Ready To Resume U.A.R. Relations

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Premier Samir Rifai said today Jordan would be willing to consider resuming diplomatic relations with the United Arab Republic if President Nasser takes the initiative.

Rifai also indicated he was willing to meet Nasser, who has been accused by Jordan of attempting to overthrow the Jordan government and assassinate King Hussein.

The premier's conciliatory statements at a news conference came amid other indications that long-frozen relations between Jordan and the U. A. R. were warming up. Friendly messages were exchanged with the U. A. R.-dominated Arab League and prospects were seen for reopening of Jordan's border with the U. A. R. province of Syria.

Arrangements were discussed for attending the Civil Defense Day picnic Aug. 30 at Idora Park in Youngstown, but no decision was reached.

Mrs. Victor Cline, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Luella Myers, president. A coverdish dinner will be held at the next meeting Sept. 25.

Midland Advances To Fourth Round In Kansas Tourney

Allen's Blow Paces Locals In Second Win

The Cox Construction nine, champions of the East Liverpool City League, will continue its bid for honors in the American Baseball Congress tournament at Canton tonight after winning its second game in three starts Friday.

The locals built up an early lead and then held off a late threat by their opponents to score an 8-4 victory over Canton Myers Chevrolet last night at Hoover Stadium, Canton. The win avenged a 1-0, 11-inning loss to the Canton team in the first game of the double elimination event.

Tonight Cox will meet the undefeated Halters Construction squad of Canton at 7:30 on the Hoover diamond. Halters Construction will take a 3-0 record and Cox a 2-1 record into the game.

If Cox wins tonight, it will meet Halters again Sunday. If Cox loses tonight, it will be out of the tournament.

In Friday night's game, John Laneve was coasting along with a 6-1 lead, having given up only one hit in five innings, when he developed a wild streak in the sixth. After walking two and hitting another batter, he was relieved by Dave Hornick, who retired two men, then had trouble himself finding the plate. After Hornick had walked in two runs, Dick Chamberlain took over to retire the side and pitch fine relief ball the rest of the way.

Canton ended up with only two hits, but managed to stay in the game by virtue of the walks.

Second Baseman Jim Doak led the Cox attack with four straight singles. He scored three runs. However, it was a 370-foot home run by Bernie Allen in the fifth with two men aboard that broke the game wide open.

Butch Wilson in right field starred defensively for Cox, turning in several sparkling catches.

Cox started things in the last of the first with one run on Doak's single, a sacrifice, a stolen base and a long fly.

Another run came across in the bottom of the fourth when Franczek singled, Peters walked and Wilson singled.

Canton tallied its first run in the top of the fifth to make things close. It developed from a walk, sacrifice, an error and Westfall's single.

Sparked by Allen's homer, Cox came back in the last of the fifth to push across four runs and assure victory. Doak had singled and Bob Campbell Sr. had walked before Bernie sent one out of the park. The fourth run of the inning resulted from walks to Franczek and Peters and another single by Wilson.

Canton kept its hopes alive with two more in the sixth and four walks and a hit batsman.

Cox, however, bounced back with another in its half on Doak's single, another walk to Bob Campbell Sr. and an outfield error. The locals added their final marker in the last of the seventh when Reed walked, Peters laid down a bunt and Bob Campbell Jr. doubled.

Canton made its final bid in the top of the eighth to score its final run on a walk, a hit batsman and a single by Di Blasi.

300 At Outing Of Minor Loop

More than 300 attended the basket picnic Friday night at Thompson Park honoring Minor League players.

The highlight of the event was announcement of the all-star team selected earlier by the managers.

The program was arranged by Lionel Smirthwaite, league president. Welcoming remarks were given by Lawrence Zollinger, vice president of the Little League. He gave a special pat on the back to Smurthwaite, Secretary Harold Maylone and the managers and coaches "for a swell job" during the season just concluded.

William Kelly, representing the parents, discussed the relationship of the parents and Minor League activities.

During a financial report by Maylone and Smurthwaite, it was pointed out that it cost $8.87 per boy to field a Minor League team on the basis of five teams, with 18 boys to a squad.

The all-star team was then announced, with each boy receiving an award from Zollinger as his name was read.

The all-star roster follows: Catchers, Mike McFarland, Potters Bank and Trust; John James, Potters Savings and Loan; first base, Garry Garland, Elks, and Mike Newlen. Potters Bank and Trust; second base, Mike Shroades, First National Bank, and Frank Tice, Elks; third base, Dwayne Lacy, Potters Bank and Trust, and Farnum Shasteen, Furniture City; shortstop, Phillip Stewart, Potters Bank and Trust, and Bob Montgomery, Potters Savings and Loan; left field, Lowell Kountz, Potters Savings and Loan, and Paul Caton, Elks; center field, Allen Lowe, Potters Savings and Loan, and Tom Prentiss, First National Bank; right field, Billy Cunningham, Potters Savings and Loan, and Allen Copestick, Potters Bank and Trust; pitchers, Frank Taylor, Potters Bank and Trust, and Mike Silliman, Elks.

The following received honorable mention; Jerry Duncan, Chuck Winters, Danny Smith, Dennies Bush, Ray Ammon, Mike Todd, Bob Kreiger, Bobby Kelly, Richard Backus, Van Pinkerton, Russell Dray, Dennis Pelley, Tom Leon, Terry Scott, Jerry Strovall and Jim Pilgrim.

Danny Smith of the Furniture City team was awarded an autographed ball for being the smallest boy playing in the league.

A's Terry Blanks Nats On One Hit

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When it comes to pitching against Washington, Ralph Terry of the Kansas City A's is either very, very good, or very, very bad.

Since coming up with the New York Yankees in 1956, the 22-year-old right-hander has a 4-4 record against the Senators. He's blanked 'em in all four victories, and has failed to go the distance in all four defeats.

Terry was almost perfect against the Senators Friday night. He didn't walk a man and faced only 28 — one over the minimum — while giving up but one hit, a third inning single by losing pitcher Russ Kemmerer in 1-0 victory that hoisted the A's into a sixth place tie with Cleveland in the American League standings.

Elsewhere in the AL, the New York Yankees ripped the Chicago White Sox 8-5 and regained a 12½-game lead. Boston closed within two games of the White Sox, defeating Cleveland 4-3. Baltimore grabbed fourth place from Detroit by beating the Tigers 2-1.

In the National League, the idle Milwaukee Braves regained a seven-game lead as Cincinnati defeated second place San Francisco 7-3. Pittsburgh whipped the Chicago Cubs 8-2 and St. Louis rapped Philadelphia 9-1.

Mickey Mantle, who hit his 36th home run in the first inning, doubled home the clincher in a four-run seventh for the Yankees. Elston Howard and Gil McDougald also homered for the champs, while Sherm Lollar reached his one-season high with his 17th homer for the Sox. Duke Maas (7-8) won it with two innings of hitless relief after Chicago tagged Johnny Kucks for two runs and a 4-3 lead in the sixth. Early Wynn (10-13), was the loser and now is 0-5 against New York for the year.

It was Early's 200th loss in the majors. He's won 245, tops among active pitchers.

Ike Delock won his 12th for the Red Sox, giving up 10 hits, one Rocky Colavito's 29th home run.

Frank Malzone hit his 12th homer for the Red Sox, then brought in the winning run with an eighth-inning double off Hoyt Wilhelm (2-7), who lost his sixth in a row.

Gene Woodling's lead-off home run won it for the Orioles in the sixth against Jim Bunning (9-8).

Turner Yells For Title Shot

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Gil Turner had his first victory of the year today—a decision over Stefan Redl—and his manager already was hollering for a title shot with welterweight champion Virgil Akins.

"We'd draw a zillion in Philadelphia," said manager Georgie Katz. "Remember, Gil is the last fighter to beat Akins. He did it easy in Atlantic City, Sept. 18, 1957."

That was the 27-year-old Turner's last victory until he whipped Redl by unanimous decision in their 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night. But win or lose, the ever-pressing Philadelphia contender gives the fans a good show.

"We'll use both Turner and Redl soon," said Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "They put on a good fight."

That it was from the opening bell. Redl, a superbly conditioned, 25-year-old from Passaic, N.J., pestered his sluggish rival through the first half of the brisk battle. Moving in and out and side to side, Redl scored with jabs and rights to the body and head.

A flash knockdown in the third round upset the German-reared Redl momentarily, but he kept buzzing around Turner until Gil's body banging finally wore him down.

The second half of the scrap, and especially the vital last two rounds were dominated by the heavier—151¼ to 147—Turner.

The three officials had Turner ahead by the following scores: Referee Teddy Martin, 6-3-1; Judge Harold Barnes, 7-3; Judge Mike Davidowitch, 6-4. The AP had it even in rounds, 5-5, but Turner the winner.

It was the second defeat for Redl who has been fighting pro 28 months. He has won 20. Turner's record is 56-17-2.

Church Teams To Play

The Industry Evangelical United Brethren Church softball team will play the Fairview Reformed Presbyterian Church team at a future date for first place in the Lower Beaver Valley Church League. The Industry team defeated the Hope Lutheran team 10-4 Tuesday night on a neutral field in Fairview in a playoff game.

Win Featured By Chambers' Fine Pitching

Southpaw Ed Smrekar came in to retire the final batter and save a 3-0 shutout for Dave Chambers Friday as the Midland nine advanced to the fourth round of the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament at Wichita, Kan.

Midland defeated the Macon (Ga.) Peaches, the second setback for the southerners thereby knocking them out of the double-elimination event.

Midland now has won two and lost one. The Steelers had moved into the Kansas competition by capturing the recent Pennsylvania Non-Pro tourney at Midland.

Two singles — the loser's only hits — spoiled a no-hitter for Chambers in the eighth inning yesterday. He walked only three and had two men out in the ninth before giving way to the ace lefty.

Midland employed a one - two punch for its first two runs. In the top of the second, Ray Chambers doubled and scored on George Kocak's single. In the fifth, Matt Yanosich doubled and scored on Dave Chambers' single.

Midland's final run came in the top of the ninth when Kocak walked, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on the end of a double steal with John Zawoysky who had singled.

Cardinals' Jones Pitches 3-Hitter

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Everything comes hard for Sad Sam Jones. Even when he wins.

Take Friday night. The St. Louis Cardinals gave him some infrequent hitting support and he beat the Philadelphia Phillies 9-1 with a three-hitter.

Trouble is, it might have been Sad Sam's second major league no-hitter. He gave the Phils chills through seven innings. Then came the eighth. Ex-Card Rip Repulski lined a pinch-hit homer. Richie Ashburn doubled. Solly Hemus, another onetime Cardinal, singled.

Then Jones went back to work, fanning a pair to get out of the inning and adding another strikeout in the ninth for a total of 14. That's a night game record in the majors.

While the Cardinals were moving back into a fourth place tie with idle Los Angeles in the National League standings, also idle Milwaukee regained a seven-game lead as Cincinnati rapped second place San Francisco 7-3. Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 8-2.

In the American League, the New York Yankees moved 12½ games ahead once more, taking their second in a row from the second place Chicago White Sox 8-5. Boston defeated Cleveland 4-3, Baltimore beat Detroit 2-1 and Kansas City defeated Washington 1-0 on Ralph Terry's one-hitter.

Sad Sam's 14 strikeouts also matched the one-game high in the majors this season. Detroit's Jim Bunning did it in the AL. Don Cardwell (2-2) lost it.

The Reds bagged it against losing reliever Marv Grissom on Ed Bailey's two-run double. The Giants had five hits, just one after Valmy Thomas' two-run homer built a 3-0 lead in the fourth off starter Joe Nuxhall. Brooks Lawrence, who had lost nine straight won it in relief.

The Pirates won against Marcelino Solis (3-3). Rookie George Witt won his seventh with Vern Law's relief help.

Cox Nine Wins 8 To 4 At Canton; To Play Again Tonight

Midland Advances To Fourth Round In Kansas Tourney

SATURDAY, AUG. 23, 1958 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 10

Allen's Blow Paces Locals In Second Win

The Cox Construction nine, champions of the East Liverpool City League, will continue its bid for honors in the American Baseball Congress tournament at Canton tonight after winning its second game in three starts Friday.

The locals built up an early lead and then held off a late threat by their opponents to score an 8-4 victory over Canton Myers Chevrolet last night at Hoover Stadium, Canton. The win avenged a 1-0, 11-inning loss to the Canton team in the first game of the double elimination event.

Tonight Cox will meet the undefeated Halters Construction squad of Canton at 7:30 on the Hoover diamond. Halters Construction will take a 3-0 record and Cox a 2-1 record into the game.

If Cox wins tonight, it will meet Halters again Sunday. If Cox loses tonight, it will be out of the tournament.

In Friday night's game, John Laneve was coasting along with a 6-1 lead, having given up only one hit in five innings, when he developed a wild streak in the sixth. After walking two and hitting another batter, he was relieved by Dave Hornick, who retired two men, then had trouble himself finding the plate. After Hornick had walked in two runs, Dick Chamberlain took over to retire the side and pitch fine relief ball the rest of the way.

Canton ended up with only two hits, but managed to stay in the game by virtue of the walks.

Second Baseman Jim Doak led the Cox attack with four straight singles. He scored three runs. However, it was a 370-foot home run by Bernie Allen in the fifth with two men aboard that broke the game wide open.

Butch Wilson in right field starred defensively for Cox, turning in several sparkling catches.

Cox started things in the last of the first with one run on Doak's single, a sacrifice, a stolen base and a long fly.

Another run came across in the bottom of the fourth when Franczek singled, Peters walked and Wilson singled.

Canton tallied its first run in the top of the fifth to make things close. It developed from a walk, sacrifice, an error and Westfall's single.

Sparked by Allen's homer, Cox came back in the last of the fifth to push across four runs and assure victory. Doak had singled and Bob Campbell Sr. had walked before Bernie sent one out of the park. The fourth run of the inning resulted from walks to Franczek and Peters and another single by Wilson.

Canton kept its hopes alive with two more in the sixth and four walks and a hit batsman.

Cox, however, bounced back with another in its half on Doak's single, another walk to Bob Campbell Sr. and an outfield error. The locals added their final marker in the last of the seventh when Reed walked, Peters laid down a bunt and Bob Campbell Jr. doubled.

Canton made its final bid in the top of the eighth to score its final run on a walk, a hit batsman and a single by Di Blasi.

A's Terry Blanks Nats On One Hit

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When it comes to pitching against Washington, Ralph Terry of the Kansas City A's is either very, very good, or very, very bad.

Since coming up with the New York Yankees in 1956, the 22-year-old right-hander has a 4-4 record against the Senators. He's blanked 'em in all four victories, and has failed to go the distance in all four defeats.

Terry was almost perfect against the Senators Friday night. He didn't walk a man and faced only 28 — one over the minimum — while giving up but one hit, a third inning single by losing pitcher Russ Kemmerer in 1-0 victory that hoisted the A's into a sixth place tie with Cleveland in the American League standings.

Elsewhere in the AL, the New York Yankees ripped the Chicago White Sox 8-5 and regained a 12½-game lead. Boston closed within two games of the White Sox, defeating Cleveland 4-3. Baltimore grabbed fourth place from Detroit by beating the Tigers 2-1.

In the National League, the idle Milwaukee Braves regained a seven-game lead as Cincinnati defeated second place San Francisco 7-3. Pittsburgh whipped the Chicago Cubs 8-2 and St. Louis rapped Philadelphia 9-1.

Mickey Mantle, who hit his 36th home run in the first inning, doubled home the clincher in a four-run seventh for the Yankees. Elston Howard and Gil McDougald also homered for the champs, while Sherm Lollar reached his one-season high with his 17th homer for the Sox. Duke Maas (7-8) won it with two innings of hitless relief after Chicago tagged Johnny Kucks for two runs and a 4-3 lead in the sixth. Early Wynn (10-13), was the loser and now is 0-5 against New York for the year.

It was Early's 200th loss in the majors. He's won 245, tops among active pitchers.

Ike Delock won his 12th for the Red Sox, giving up 10 hits, one Rocky Colavito's 29th home run. Frank Malzone hit his 12th homer for the Red Sox, then brought in the winning run with an eighth-inning double off Hoyt Wilhelm (2-7), who lost his sixth in a row.

Gene Woodling's lead-off home run won it for the Orioles in the sixth against Jim Bunning (9-8).

Turner Yells For Title Shot

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Gil Turner had his first victory of the year today—a decision over Stefan Redl—and his manager already was hollering for a title shot with welterweight champion Virgil Akins.

"We'd draw a zillion in Philadelphia," said manager Georgie Katz. "Remember, Gil is the last fighter to beat Akins. He did it easy in Atlantic City, Sept. 18, 1957."

That was the 27-year-old Turner's last victory until he whipped Redl by unanimous decision in their 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night. But win or lose, the ever-pressing Philadelphia contender gives the fans a good show.

"We'll use both Turner and Redl soon," said Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club. "They put on a good fight."

That it was from the opening bell. Redl, a superbly conditioned, 25-year-old from Passaic, N.J., pestered his sluggish rival through the first half of the brisk battle. Moving in and out and side to side, Redl scored with jabs and rights to the body and head.

A flash knockdown in the third round upset the German-reared Redl momentarily, but he kept buzzing around Turner until Gil's body banging finally wore him down.

The second half of the scrap, and especially the vital last two rounds were dominated by the heavier—151¼ to 147—Turner.

The three officials had Turner ahead by the following scores: Referee Teddy Martin, 6-3-1; Judge Harold Barnes, 7-3; Judge Mike Davidowitch, 6-4. The AP had it even in rounds, 5-5, but Turner the winner.

It was the second defeat for Redl who has been fighting pro 28 months. He has won 20. Turner's record is 56-17-2.

Win Featured By Chambers' Fine Pitching

Southpaw Ed Smrekar came in to retire the final batter and save a 3-0 shutout for Dave Chambers Friday as the Midland nine advanced to the fourth round of the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament at Wichita, Kan.

Midland defeated the Macon (Ga.) Peaches, the second setback for the southerners thereby knocking them out of the double-elimination event.

Midland now has won two and lost one. The Steelers had moved into the Kansas competition by capturing the recent Pennsylvania Non-Pro tourney at Midland.

Two singles — the loser's only hits — spoiled a no-hitter for Chambers in the eighth inning yesterday. He walked only three and had two men out in the ninth before giving way to the ace lefty.

Midland employed a one - two punch for its first two runs. In the top of the second, Ray Chambers doubled and scored on George Kocak's single. In the fifth, Matt Yanosich doubled and scored on Dave Chambers' single.

Midland's final run came in the top of the ninth when Kocak walked, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on the end of a double steal with John Zawoysky who had singled.

Cardinals' Jones Pitches 3-Hitter

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Everything comes hard for Sad Sam Jones. Even when he wins.

Take Friday night. The St. Louis Cardinals gave him some infrequent hitting support and he beat the Philadelphia Phillies 9-1 with a three-hitter.

Trouble is, it might have been Sad Sam's second major league no-hitter. He gave the Phils chills through seven innings. Then came the eighth. Ex-Card Rip Repulski lined a pinch-hit homer. Richie Ashburn doubled. Solly Hemus, another onetime Cardinal, singled.

Then Jones went back to work, fanning a pair to get out of the inning and adding another strikeout in the ninth for a total of 14. That's a night game record in the majors.

While the Cardinals were moving back into a fourth place tie with idle Los Angeles in the National League standings, also idle Milwaukee regained a seven-game lead as Cincinnati rapped second place San Francisco 7-3. Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 8-2.

In the American League, the New York Yankees moved 12½ games ahead once more, taking their second in a row from the second place Chicago White Sox 8-5. Boston defeated Cleveland 4-3, Baltimore beat Detroit 2-1 and Kansas City defeated Washington 1-0 on Ralph Terry's one-hitter.

Sad Sam's 14 strikeouts also matched the one-game high in the majors this season. Detroit's Jim Bunning did it in the AL. Don Cardwell (2-2) lost it.

The Reds bagged it against losing reliever Marv Grissom on Ed Bailey's two-run double. The Giants had five hits, just one after Valmy Thomas' two-run homer built a 3-0 lead in the fourth off starter Joe Nuxhall. Brooks Lawrence, who had lost nine straight won it in relief.

The Pirates won against Marcelino Solis (3-3). Rookie George Witt won his seventh with Vern Law's relief help.

Bolden Bright Spot In 17-7 Browns' Loss.

DETROIT (AP) — Little Leroy Bolden, the speedy halfback from Michigan State, may win the running halfback spot for the Cleveland Browns despite his size. He's only 5-foot-8 and 165 pounds.

Bolden was the one bright spot in Cleveland's 17-7 loss to the Detroit Lions in a National Football League exhibition contest before 36,662 Briggs Stadium fans here Friday night.

In the first half Bolden carried seven times for an even 100 yards. He added another 12 yards in the second half on five carries. His average of 9.3 yards a shot is nothing to sneeze at.

Cleveland rolled up 337 yards to 188 for the pro football champions. The big yardage for the Browns came in the first half when they marked up 254.

The Lions broke the game apart halfway through the third period with a pass interception and an 88-yard touchdown run by linebacker Bob Long. The Browns were trailing 10-7 at the time and had moved to Detroit's 15.

Then quarterback Milt Plum was rushed while attempting an aerial and Long picked off the errant toss and galloped down the field for the score.

Detroit scored first on Jim Martin's 42-yard field goal early in the opening period. The Browns drove 84 yards on Plum's passing and Bolden's running in seven plays for a 7-3 lead.

The score came on a nine-yard toss from Plum to end Pete Brewster. Lou Groze converted.

Just before the half, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne directed a touchdown drive capped by John Henry Johnson's two-yard plunge. That made it 10-7 after Layne's conversion.

Finals Slated Today In U.S. Women's Golf

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) — The Women's National Amateur Golf Championship came down to a pulchritude-packed final today. It pairs a 20-year-old college girl, who wants to win but won't devote her life to it, and a veteran of 25, who thinks it's time to settle down and get a job.

The rivals in this 36-hole match over the 6,467-yard Wee Burn course were Anne Quast, the Stanford University senior from Marysville, Wash., and Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., a former champion who says she's going to spend next week looking for a job in the public relations field.

Miss Romack won the championship in 1954 and has been to the quarter-finals three other times since her first appearance in the tournament in 1952. Miss Quast first played in the women's championship in 1952, when she wasn't quite 15 years old. She got to the semifinals in 1956 and the quarter-finals in 1955 and 1957.

Until she pulled out an amazing one-up victory over last year's champion, JoAnne Gunderson, Friday, Anne was beginning to think that was about her limit.

"I'd give anything to win the Women's Amateur. I've felt that way ever since I've been playing golf," she said. "But I have no intention of devoting my life to it—and you could."

Miss Romack survived a shaky start Friday and defeated Meriam Bailey of Palatine, Ill., another perennial semifinalist, 4 and 2.

Despite Daley's 'No'

Veeck Presses Repurchase Plans Of Cleveland Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bill Veeck, president of the Cleveland Indians in their golden days a decade ago, will go ahead with an offer to repurchase the Tribe—even though William R. Daley, board chairman, says he won't listen.

The latest offer for the Tribe—reported in the neighborhood of four million dollars—came after Daley hinted the Indians might move on to greener pastures.

Veeck, speaking for a syndicate, tried to deal with Daley last fall and was turned down cold.

Commented Daley Friday after news of the latest proposal leaked out:

"I wouldn't consider the sale of the club at any price or in any circumstances. I went into baseball to stay, and that's what I intend to do."

Veeck, contacted in Boston on a speaking tour, said he would make a formal offer to Daley Monday anyway. He still had hopes it would be accepted.

"I will do everything I possibly can to help keep the Indians in Cleveland," he declared.

Daley said he, too, wants the Indians to stay in Cleveland. But he added that "unless a lot of other people show that they want them we'll have no choice." He was referring to the lagging attendance at Indians games here.

He said he had been under tremendous pressure from his associates to move the team to another city and away from competition of the horse tracks.

Toronto, Ont., Dallas, Tex., and Minneapolis, Minn., have been suggested as possible new sites for the Tribe. Daley says, however, the Indians have not contacted anyone on the possibility of moving.

Grand American Handicap Shoot Won By Canadian

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—A Canadian held the Grand American Handicap trapshoot title today, but a heart - broken 16-year-old kid from Illinois is getting a lot of cheers too.

The new champion is 66-year-old Emerson Clark, a foundry superintendent from Preston, Ont., first to carry the crown across the Canadian border.

The kid is Robert V. Nolan of Lewistown, Ill., who posted the only perfect score in the record-breaking field of 2,214 and didn't win a thing.

The youngster broke 100 straight from 19 yards, and while being hailed as the winner of trapshooting's biggest classic, was ruled ineligible for the honor by Amateur Trapshooting Assn. officials.

The decision, announced by President Vic Reinders of Waukesha, Wis., disclosed that young Nolan had paid a $7.50 entry fee which entitled him to shoot for targets only. The total entry fee for those shooting for purses and the championship is $61.

With Nolan ousted from the top spot, Clark and Jim McCole, a 30-year-old game warden from Gering, Neb., moved into the lead with 99. In the shootoff, Clark emerged a 23-20 victor.

The 59th Grand American winds up today with the national doubles championship and the Vandalia handicap. Both count in the overall and all-around championships, based on the full week of shooting in which nearly a million and a quarter targets have been thrown.

McCole and Clark broke about even in winnings, each picking up around $4,000, but the new champion had some added loot. He won a diamond-studded championship pin and a large chest of silverware.

Back of the leaders with scores of 98 were Jack L. Foster of Oneida, Ill.; Harvey G. Harter of Carlock, Ill., and George W. Orshek of Cedar Rapids, Neb.

C. R. Crawford of Maywood, Ill., last year's winner with 98 of 100, dropped to 93 this time.

Pennsylvanian Wins Small Bore Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — Robert Moore of Claysville, Pa., firing two perfect scores on the final day, rallied to win the national small bore rifle championship here Friday with a score of 6,385 points of a possible 6,400.

Moore edged Herbert Hollister of Boulder, Colo., who wound up with 6,384 and Charles Whipple of Somerset, Pa., the front - runner for five days of the six-day run, who had 6,382.

J. Kenneth Johnson of Washington, Pa., the 1956 champion, finished fourth, also with 6,382. He was listed behind Whipple because of fewer "X" ring hits which are used to break ties.

Miss Janet Friddell, 17-year-old from Toledo, Ohio, won two titles. She finished first in both the women's and junior races with 6,373, just ahead of Miss Barbara Norton of Bridgeport, Conn., who was second in both races with 6,370.

Pro Grid Champs Erase Couple Nasty Rumors

By The Associated Press

Coach George Wilson told his Detroit Lions it was time to wipe out a couple of nasty rumors. His National Football League champions responded by knocking over the Cleveland Browns 17-7 in a pre-season exhibition game at Detroit Friday night.

The victory helped the Lions forget last week's 35-19 drubbing at the hands of the College All-Stars. It also kept intact the team's record of never having lost to the Browns on home grounds.

On the West Coast, the Los Angeles Rams capitalized on Billy Wade's passing and a tough defense and defeated the New York Giants, 38-10, in a pre-season setto at Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

Wilson, starting his second season as head coach of Detroit, said he didn't make a speech to his players before the game. "I merely told them everybody has been saying we look lousy in camp, and we looked lousy against the college boys," he said. "It was time they proved a little something to themselves and to everybody else."

If there was one thing the victory proved, it was that quarterback Bobby Layne is ready for his 11th season of professional football.

Layne, whose career was jeopardized by a broken ankle suffered last December against the same Browns, directed the Detroit team to its only long scoring march. It covered 80 yards in 11 plays and the former Texas star passed for more than half the yardage.

Ben Agajanian's 28-yard field goal put the Giants out in front in the opening quarter.

But Wade shot the Los Angeles team out in front to stay with two touchdown passes in the second quarter. He hit Jon Arnett on the goal line with a 35-yard strike and then fired a 39-yard touchdown pass to Del Shofner.

Senators Soon May Ask To Shift To Minneapolis

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Senators, after 58 seasons in the capital, may ask permission soon to shift to Minneapolis.

Club President Calvin Griffith refuses to be pinned down.

Griffith denied Friday reports he already had decided to seek American League approval of a transfer.

But, to the relief of Minneapolis interests hoping to bag a major league franchise, Griffith added he hasn't made up his mind one way or the other.

Whether other American League club owners would tolerate a move out of Washington was still another question.

Several, including Tom Yawkey of Boston and Del Webb of New York, have declared the American League ought to remain in the capital for reasons of prestige. They also contend that despite skimpy attendance in recent years Washington is a sound baseball city.

President Will Harridge of the American League said he had received no word from Griffith about a decision to move.

Minneapolis is considering expansion of its modern stadium to 41,000 capacity, almost double the present size. Ancient Griffith Stadium seats about 28,500 and is seldom filled.

Congress has authorized a new 40,000-seat arena for Washington, but Griffith dislikes the location and, as owner of his present quarters, is sensitive about becoming a tenant elsewhere.

The Griffith family has controlling stock interest in the team and now wields a clearcut majority in its board of directors.

Indians Call On Cal McLish

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland's slumping Indians sent Cal McLish to the mound today in an attempt to end a three-game losing streak.

In their last 13 games, the Tribe has won only two.

Friday, Ike Delock posted his 12th victory of the year for the Boston Red Sox. He scattered 10 Indian hits and the Red Sox won 4-3.

Two of the four Red Sox runs were knocked in by Frank Malzone. The third baseman hit his 12th home run of the year in the fourth inning. He sent the winning run home in the eighth with a single.

Rocky Colavito gave the Indians some hope in the ninth when he homered. But Delock got the next three Indians on a grounder, a foul ball and a strike out.

Hoyt Wilhelm pitched all the way for Cleveland. He has now lost seven and won two.

Jackie Jensen got the Red Sox off to an early lead in the second when he doubled. Dick Gernert slammed a Wilheim offering through the middle for a single, scoring Jensen.

The Indians bounced back in the third when Billy Moran singled through and Dick Brown raced home from second.

The Tribe took a 2-1 lead in the fourth, scoring a run on singles by Minnie Minoso, Colavito and Randy Jackson.

But Malzone opened the Red Sox fourth with his home run. Jim Piersall, on base by way of a fielder's choice, stole second and came home with Boston's third run.

Malzone rifled a single into center in the eighth to score Pete Runnels with the winning run. Runnels had doubled.

Colavito got his 29th homer of the year in the ninth, but the Indians failed to score after that

Bob Giallombardo hurled his fifth shutout of the year and Sandy Amoros slammed his 114th homer as the Royals beat the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-0 Friday night in the opener of their crucial four game set. The victory increased Montreal's lead over the runnerup Maple Leafs to 4½ games.

The Rochester Red Wings edged the buffalo Bisons 2-1. The Havana Sugar Kings came from behind to defeat the Columbus Jets 4-2 and the Richmond Virgians beat the Miami Marlins 4-1.

Bolden Bright Spot In 17-7 Browns' Loss

DETROIT (AP) — Little Leroy Bolden, the speedy halfback from Michigan State, may win the running halfback spot for the Cleveland Browns despite his size. He's only 5-foot-8 and 165 pounds.

Bolden was the one bright spot in Cleveland's 17-7 loss to the Detroit Lions in a National Football League exhibition contest before 36,662 Briggs Stadium fans here Friday night.

In the first half Bolden carried seven times for an even 100 yards. He added another 12 yards in the second half on five carries. His average of 9.3 yards a shot is nothing to sneeze at.

Cleveland rolled up 337 yards to 188 for the pro football champions. The big yardage for the Browns came in the first half when they marked up 254.

The Lions broke the game apart halfway through the third period with a pass interception and an 88-yard touchdown run by linebacker Bob Long. The Browns were trailing 10-7 at the time and had moved to Detroit's 15.

Then quarterback Milt Plum was rushed while attempting an aerial and Long picked off the errant toss and galloped down the field for the score.

Detroit scored first on Jim Martin's 42-yard field goal early in the opening period. The Browns drove 84 yards on Plum's passing and Bolden's running in seven plays for a 7-3 lead.

The score came on a nine-yard toss from Plum to end Pete Brewster. Lou Groze converted.

Just before the half, Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne directed a touchdown drive capped by John Henry Johnson's two-yard plunge. That made it 10-7 after Layne's conversion.

Finals Slated Today In U.S. Women's Golf

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) — The Women's National Amateur Golf Championship came down to a pulchritude-packed final today. It pairs a 20-year-old college girl, who wants to win but won't devote her life to it, and a veteran of 25, who thinks it's time to settle down and get a job.

The rivals in this 36-hole match over the 6,467-yard Wee Burn course were Anne Quast, the Stanford University senior from Marysville, Wash., and Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., a former champion who says she's going to spend next week looking for a job in the public relations field.

Miss Romack won the championship in 1954 and has been to the quarter-finals three other times since her first appearance in the tournament in 1952. Miss Quast first played in the women's championship in 1952, when she wasn't quite 15 years old. She got to the semifinals in 1956 and the quarter-finals in 1955 and 1957.

Until she pulled out an amazing one-up victory over last year's champion, JoAnne Gunderson, Friday, Anne was beginning to think that was about her limit.

"I'd give anything to win the Women's Amateur. I've felt that way ever since I've been playing golf," she said. "But I have no intention of devoting my life to it—and you could."

Miss Romack survived a shaky start Friday and defeated Meriam Bailey of Palatine, Ill., another perennial semifinalist, 4 and 2.

Veeck Presses Repurchase Plans Of Cleveland Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bill Veeck, president of the Cleveland Indians in their golden days a decade ago, will go ahead with an offer to repurchase the Tribe—even though William R. Daley, board chairman, says he won't listen.

The latest offer for the Tribe—reported in the neighborhood of four million dollars—came after Daley hinted the Indians might move on to greener pastures.

Veeck, speaking for a syndicate, tried to deal with Daley last fall and was turned down cold.

Commented Daley Friday after news of the latest proposal leaked out:

"I wouldn't consider the sale of the club at any price or in any circumstances. I went into baseball to stay, and that's what I intend to do."

Veeck, contacted in Boston on a speaking tour, said he would make a formal offer to Daley Monday anyway. He still had hopes it would be accepted.

"I will do everything I possibly can to help keep the Indians in Cleveland," he declared.

Daley said he, too, wants the Indians to stay in Cleveland. But he added that "unless a lot of other people show that they want them we'll have no choice." He was referring to the lagging attendance at Indians games here.

He said he had been under tremendous pressure from his associates to move the team to another city and away from competition of the horse tracks.

Toronto, Ont., Dallas, Tex., and Minneapolis, Minn., have been suggested as possible new sites for the Tribe. Daley says, however, the Indians have not contacted anyone on the possibility of moving.

Grand American Handicap Shoot Won By Canadian

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—A Canadian held the Grand American Handicap trapshoot title today, but a heart - broken 16-year-old kid from Illinois is getting a lot of cheers too.

The new champion is 66-year-old Emerson Clark, a foundry superintendent from Preston, Ont., first to carry the crown across the Canadian border.

The kid is Robert V. Nolan of Lewistown, Ill., who posted the only perfect score in the record-breaking field of 2,214 and didn't win a thing.

The youngster broke 100 straight from 19 yards, and while being hailed as the winner of trapshooting's biggest classic, was ruled ineligible for the honor by Amateur Trapshooting Assn. officials.

The decision, announced by President Vic Reinders of Waukesha, Wis., disclosed that young Nolan had paid a $7.50 entry fee which entitled him to shoot for targets only. The total entry fee for those shooting for purses and the championship is $61.

With Nolan ousted from the top spot, Clark and Jim McCole, a 30-year-old game warden from Gering, Neb., moved into the lead with 99. In the shootoff, Clark emerged a 23-20 victor.

The 59th Grand American winds up today with the national doubles championship and the Vandalia handicap. Both count in the overall and all-around championships, based on the full week of shooting in which nearly a million and a quarter targets have been thrown.

McCole and Clark broke about even in winnings, each picking up around $4,000, but the new champion had some added loot. He won a diamond-studded championship pin and a large chest of silverware.

Back of the leaders with scores of 98 were Jack L. Foster of Oneida, Ill.; Harvey G. Harter of Carlock, Ill., and George W. Orshek of Cedar Rapids, Neb.

C. R. Crawford of Maywood, Ill., last year's winner with 98 of 100, dropped to 93 this time.

Pennsylvanian Wins Small Bore Rifle Title

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — Robert Moore of Claysville, Pa., firing two perfect scores on the final day, rallied to win the national small bore rifle championship here Friday with a score of 6,385 points of a possible 6,400.

Moore edged Herbert Hollister of Boulder, Colo., who wound up with 6,384 and Charles Whipple of Somerset, Pa., the front - runner for five days of the six-day run, who had 6,382.

J. Kenneth Johnson of Washington, Pa., the 1956 champion, finished fourth, also with 6,382. He was listed behind Whipple because of fewer "X" ring hits which are used to break ties.

Miss Janet Friddell, 17-year-old from Toledo, Ohio, won two titles. She finished first in both the women's and junior races with 6,373, just ahead of Miss Barbara Norton of Bridgeport, Conn., who was second in both races with 6,370.

Pro Grid Champs Erase Couple Nasty Rumors

By The Associated Press

Coach George Wilson told his Detroit Lions it was time to wipe out a couple of nasty rumors. His National Football League champions responded by knocking over the Cleveland Browns 17-7 in a pre-season exhibition game at Detroit Friday night.

The victory helped the Lions forget last week's 35-19 drubbing at the hands of the College All-Stars. It also kept intact the team's record of never having lost to the Browns on home grounds.

On the West Coast, the Los Angeles Rams capitalized on Billy Wade's passing and a tough defense and defeated the New York Giants, 38-10, in a pre-season setto at Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

Wilson, starting his second season as head coach of Detroit, said he didn't make a speech to his players before the game. "I merely told them everybody has been saying we look lousy in camp, and we looked lousy against the college boys," he said. "It was time they proved a little something to themselves and to everybody else."

If there was one thing the victory proved, it was that quarterback Bobby Layne is ready for his 11th season of professional football.

Layne, whose career was jeopardized by a broken ankle suffered last December against the same Browns, directed the Detroit team to its only long scoring march. It covered 80 yards in 11 plays and the former Texas star passed for more than half the yardage.

The Rams, in posting their second straight exhibition victory, had to come from behind.

Ben Agajanian's 28-yard field goal put the Giants out in front in the opening quarter.

But Wade shot the Los Angeles team out in front to stay with two touchdown passes in the second quarter. He hit Jon Arnett on the goal line with a 35-yard strike and then fired a 39-yard touchdown pass to Del Shofner.

Senators Soon May Ask To Shift To Minneapolis

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Senators, after 58 seasons in the capital, may ask permission soon to shift to Minneapolis.

Club President Calvin Griffith refuses to be pinned down.

Griffith denied Friday reports he already had decided to seek American League approval of a transfer.

But, to the relief of Minneapolis interests hoping to bag a major league franchise, Griffith added he hasn't made up his mind one way or the other.

Whether other American League club owners would tolerate a move out of Washington was still another question.

Several, including Tom Yawkey of Boston and Del Webb of New York, have declared the American League ought to remain in the capital for reasons of prestige. They also contend that despite skimpy attendance in recent years Washington is a sound baseball city.

President Will Harridge of the American League said he had received no word from Griffith about a decision to move.

Minneapolis is considering expansion of its modern stadium to 41,000 capacity, almost double the present size. Ancient Griffith Stadium seats about 28,500 and is seldom filled.

Congress has authorized a new 40,000-seat arena for Washington, but Griffith dislikes the location and, as owner of his present quarters, is sensitive about becoming a tenant elsewhere.

The Griffith family has controlling stock interest in the team and now wields a clearcut majority in its board of directors.

Sharpsburg Favorite In Buckeye Handicap

CLEVELAND (AP)—Listed as the 2-1 favorite, Sharpsburg today headed a field of 10 horses in the $40,000 Buckeye Handicap at the mile and one-eighth race.

The 5-year-old Chestnut, owned by Roy E. Faircloth, has been given top weight of 115 pounds and will be ridden by Nick Shuk

Indians Call On Cal McLish

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland's slumping Indians sent Cal McLish to the mound today in an attempt to end a three-game losing streak.

In their last 13 games, the Tribe has won only two.

Friday, Ike Delock posted his 12th victory of the year for the Boston Red Sox. He scattered 10 Indian hits and the Red Sox won 4-3.

Two of the four Red Sox runs were knocked in by Frank Malzone. The third baseman hit his 12th home run of the year in the fourth inning. He sent the winning run home in the eighth with a single.

Rocky Colavito gave the Indians some hope in the ninth when he homered. But Delock got the next three Indians on a grounder, a foul ball and a strike out.

Hoyt Wilhelm pitched all the way for Cleveland. He has now lost seven and won two.

Jackie Jensen got the Red Sox off to an early lead in the second when he doubled. Dick Gernert slammed a Wilheim offering through the middle for a single, scoring Jensen.

The Indians bounced back in the third when Billy Moran singled through and Dick Brown raced home from second.

The Tribe took a 2-1 lead in the fourth, scoring a run on singles by Minnie Minoso, Colavito and Randy Jackson.

But Malzone opened the Red Sox fourth with his home run. Jim Piersall, on base by way of a fielder's choice, stole second and came home with Boston's third run.

Malzone rifled a single into center in the eighth to score Pete Runnels with the winning run. Runnels had doubled.

Ex-Dodgers Giving Royals Maximum Lift

By The Associated Press

The Montreal Royals moving closer to the International League pennant, are getting maximum mileage from the players the National League Dodgers discarded.

Bob Giallombardo hurled his fifth shutout of the year and Sandy Amoros slammed his 114th homer as the Royals beat the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-0 Friday night in the opener of their crucial four game set. The victory increased Montreal's lead over the runnerup Maple Leafs to 4½ games.

The Rochester Red Wings edged the buffalo Bisons 2-1. The Havana Sugar Kings came from behind to defeat the Columbus Jets 4-2 and the Richmond Virgians beat the Miami Marlins 4-1.

Steel Beam Crushes Howard U. Grid Star

SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J. (AP) — A huge steel beam crushed the life from a college football captain who was working in a steel warehouse for the summer.

Kenneth Edwin Washington Jr., 23, star athlete at Howard (DC) University, died Friday in the instant that the 4-ton "I" beam fell from a pole, pushing him against another beam.

Girard Changes Mind, To Play With Steelers

CALIFORNIA, Pa. (AP)—End Earl (Jug) Girard, a veteran of 10 seasons in the National Football League, has changed his mind about retirement. He will make another try with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Girard was second high among Steeler pass receivers last year with 21 catches for 419 yards and four touchdowns. He also ranked eighth in the NFL on punt returns.

By The Associated Press

Pitching — Ralph Terry, Athletics, didn't walk a man, faced only 28 batters and allowed but one hit —a third-inning single by losing pitcher Russ Kemmerer — in 1-0 victory over the Senators.

Hitting — Frank Malzone, Red Sox, hit a fourth-inning home run that tied it 2-all, then doubled home the winning run in the eighth for a 4-3 victory over the Indians.

Carroll Lowenstein of Harvard tossed eight touchdown passes in 1950. Three years later he tossed five in one game against Davidson.

Pirates' Manager Signed To '59 Pact

CHICAGO (AP) — Manager Danny Murtaugh of the pennant - contending Pittsburgh Pirates Friday was signed to a one-year contract for 1959, Gen. Mgr. Joe Brown announced. Terms were not disclosed.

Murtaugh, 40, was a Pirate coach when he was named manager Aug. 3, 1957 to succeed Bobby Bragan. Bragan subsequently went to the American League Cleveland Indians as manager, and was fired from that job last month.

The Pirates, in third place, eight games behind the National League-leading Milwaukee Braves, ended the 1957 season in a tie for seventh.

Pigeons Fly Away With Rare Pennies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Attorney Ben Henderson, a coin collector, came in possession of four rare pennies valued at $40. He rubbed them with olive oil and placed them on a window sill so the sun would turn all of them the same color.

A few minutes later he saw pigeons flying away with them.

Auto Strikes Peril Output Of 1959 Cars

Overtime, Grievance Procedures Reasons; Some 5,500 Idled

DETROIT (AP)—Disputes centering mainly around overtime assignments and grievance procedures fostered a rash of auto industry strikes that idled some 5,500 workers today and threatened 1959 model production.

Strikes were called this week at six plants of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler in three states. Two of them were settled Friday, a United Auto Workers Union walkout over production standards at GM's Fisher Body plant in Mansfield, Ohio, and an hours-long walkout at GM's Packard Electric Division plant at Warren, Ohio.

General Motors was the target of another UAW dispute at its Buick engine plant in Flint, Mich., where 1,400 workers have walked out. The union charges shop committeemen are not allowed enough time to handle grievances.

Buick General Manager Edward T Ragsdale accused the union officers of displaying a "callous disregard" for members and their families. He said if the strike continues, it will affect more than 11,000 hourly-rated Buick worker

Two strikes remained unsettled at Chrysler plants over the issue of overtime assignments for workers. The UAW has announced its opposition to nonessential overtime for workers while thousands are jobless.

The walkout started Wednesday at a Chrysler plant in Detroit. The other began Thursday at a corporation stamping plant in Twinsburg, Ohio.

In Chicago Heights, Ill., 1,550 were idle at the Ford stamping plant. They struck to protest pending disciplinary action.

UAW members, working without contracts, were excluded from a cost of living allowance of one cent an hour, which the companies said they are giving salaried employes. The UAW contracts with the big three expired 12 weeks ago.

Negotiators have reported no progress in contract sessions between the union and the auto makers.

LaCroft Playlot Has Talent Show

Two couples reigned as kings and queens at the talent show Thursday night for the LaCroft Playgound under the supervision of Miss Sue Woomer.

Attendants, also selected by vote, were Bonnie Deem, Janet Gray, Peggy Haberland, Jim Moore, Bob McKinnon, Arthur Smith, Vicky Cranston, Patty McVey, Bill Fitch and Jerry Reed.

Their crowns were made by Miss Woomer, who also presented gifts to the couples.

Participating in the playlet, "As Friendly as Can Be," were Mike Emmerling, Keith Werner, Jimmy Moore, Arthur Smith, Carl Mack, Janet Gray, Darlene Neilson, Nancy Smith and Sandy McCloud.

Others in the talent event were Maxine Skaleski, Carl Mack, Kevin Mack, Donna Neilson, Lana Risden, Delores Adkins, Linda Smith, Cathy Thorn, Brenda Adkins, Patty Skaleski, Bob Fitch, Bill Fitch, Paul Preston and Fred Lightfoot.

The event marked the closing of the palyground activities.

City Has 2 Collisions With Minor Damages

Two minor accidents were reported Thursday by police.

A collision at 10:06 p.m. at Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. involved cars driven by Michael Horoszko, 229 W. 2nd St., and Mary J. Fox, 252 W. 7th St.

The woman told police her car started to slide on the curve and she was unable to avoid hitting the Horoszko car.

The other at 1:30 p. m. on Boyce St. was between cars operated by James L. Lawrence, 18, of 249 Moore St. and Dwight Morehead, 67, of 1625 Maple St., Wellsville, police said.

U.S. Dollar To Be Official Ryukus Money

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Lt. Gen. Donald P. Booth, U.S. high commissioner of the Ryukyu Islands, announced today that American greenbacks will become the official currency in the Ryukyus.

No specific date was given in the announcement.

Booth said initial steps already have been taken to retire the B yen, a special blocked yen which has served as Ryukyuan currency since the end of World War II. One U.S. dollar is worth 120 B yen.

Hearing Set For New Dam

Structure Like That At Stratton Planned

Rep. Arch Moore of West Virginia 1st Congressional Distruct announced that public hearings are to be held in Wheeling Sept. 19 in regard to replacement of three locks and dams on the Ohio River.

The meeting will be held in the Wheeling Electric Auditorium at 10 a. m. and will be conducted by the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

The hearing will deal with the construction of new facilities to replace Dams 12, 13 and 14 between Wheeling and Clarington. These locks and dams now average approximately 50 years in age and are deteriorated to such an extent that they can no longer adequately handle river navigation.

The engineers propose to replace the three existing facilities with a single modern lock and dam designed to meet existing needs and to handle future growth of river traffic and similar to that being built at Stratton.

The proposed structure would consist of a main lock chamber 1,200 feet by 110 feet and auxiliary lock chamber, 600 feet by 110 feet, and a gated dam.

Two sites are under consideration. One is upstream from Clarington, Monroe County, Ohio. The other is 5 miles below Clarington. The lock would be located in Marshall County, W. Va.

The new dam would result in a deeper and longer navigation pool than is presently available. It would extend from the selected dam site upstream to the proposed Pike Island Dam site near Yorkville.

A series of dams similar to those at Montgomery Island and at Gallipolis and the same as the one being built at Stratton is planned for modernization of navigation facilities on the Ohio.

Child Believed Responsible For False Fire Alarm

The second false alarm by phone in two weeks sent three trucks and eight firemen rushing to North Side Friday at 6:01 p.m. Four other calls, three of them preceding the false run, were answered by firemen yesterday.

Firemen received a call to 1045 Peake St., believed a child, saying the house was afire. They said the phone conversation was recorded and checked against a recording of another false alarm to the same neighborhood two weeks ago.

The voice is of the same child who turned in the other alarm, firemen said. The first was to Ray St.

Firemen urged parents of the Lincoln Ave. area to warn their children against turning in false alarms.

They pointed out that on such a busy day as yesterday, a fire could break out while they were on the false run and it could possibly develop into a major conflagragation before they could respond.

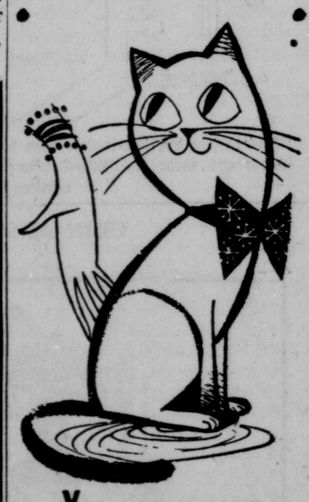

A pan of cabbage cooking burned on the stove at the home of Ben Wright, 239 W. Drury Ln., filling the house with smoke at 2:22 p. m. yesterday.

Firemen flushed gasoline leaking from a car at 5th and Jackson Sts. at 11:12 a. m. and again at 4:58 p. m. from another at 3rd and Washington Sts.

A short developed in the timer of a clothes drier at the home of Mae Allison, 644 Riley Ave., last night at 7:22 and caused the home to fill with smoke, firemen said.

Italian Singer Finds Pot Of Gold In Smash Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Domenico Modugno, the singing sensation from Italy, has found a pot of American gold in the blue sky he sings about in his smash record "Nel Blu, Dipinto di Blu."

The mustachioed, guitar thumping singer was unknown to American listeners five weeks ago.

Now, although he didn't make his American debut until this week, he has become a coast-to-coast sensation.

His swift fame may catapult him into the millionaire bracket if his record sales, now nearing the two-million mark, and his future night club bookings continue to soar.

The 28-year-old Modugno, somewhat dazed at his overnight success, has been flooded with offers ranging up to $10,000 a week for future personal appearances.

He has accepted dates to appear in New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Toronto, Las Vegas and Los Angeles.

Included is a four-week date at Las Vegas' Desert Inn at $10,000 weekly — many, many times what he earned during his best week in Italy.

Modugno has even been booked to appear in New York's Carnegie Hall, the home of symphonic concerts, Sept. 17 to sing his Italian love songs.

Shaking his head unbelievingly, Modugno said his American reception exceeded his wildest dreams. He said:

"It is more than fantastic because I sing in Italian and most of them cannot understand. Perhaps it shows that words mean very little in life when you have music, the universal language."

Lake Michigan Diversion Fees Winning Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foes of increased Lake Michigan diversion appeared today to be winning their fight to keep the measure from coming to a vote before Congress adjourns.

The hill to permit increased diversion from the lake by Chicago was laid aside by the Senate shortly before midnight Friday night in favor of two major appropriations bills. Debate had started earlier.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill) said "there is great danger that the bill will be filibustered to death" if all major legislation is completed before resuming debate on the bill. His protests were shouted down on a voice vote.

Sen. Frank Lausche (D-Ohio), a foe of the measure, retorted "it will be for the good of the country if it is talked to death."

The Senate got through only 1½ hours of debate on the House-passed measure before it was laid aside. Seven senators from Great Lakes states opposing added diversion had desks loaded with untouched speeches against the bill.

Chorus Girl Praised As Stand-In For Lead

LONDON (AP) — A $70-a-week chorus girl in the hit musical "My Fair Lady" won rave notices today for her stand-in performance in the show's feminine lead role.

Tonia Lee, 24, stepped in for star Julie Andrews with six hours notice Friday when Miss Andrews was stricken with tonsillitis.

Miss Lee, who had never rehearsed lines with star Rex Harrison, played the role of the Cockney heroine, Eliza Doolittle without a hitch.

Fall Fatal To Girl

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Mary Rose Lefeld, 6, of Rt. 1, Coldwater, Mercer County, died in St. Rita's Hospital here Friday of injuries suffered in a fall at the farm home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lefeld. Police said she fell from the hayloft in the barn.

Pigeons Fly Away With Rare Pennies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Attorney Ben Henderson, a coin collector, came in possession of four rare pennies valued at $40. He rubbed them with olive oil and placed them on a window sill so the sun would turn all of them the same color.

A few minutes later he saw pigeons flying away with them.

Overtime, Grievance Procedures Reasons; Some 5,500 Idled

DETROIT (AP)—Disputes centering mainly around overtime assignments and grievance procedures fostered a rash of auto industry strikes that idled some 5,500 workers today and threatened 1959 model production.

Strikes were called this week at six plants of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler in three states. Two of them were settled Friday, a United Auto Workers Union walkout over production standards at GM's Fisher Body plant in Mansfield, Ohio, and an hours-long walkout at GM's Packard Electric Division plant at Warren, Ohio.

General Motors was the target of another UAW dispute at its Buick engine plant in Flint, Mich., where 1,400 workers have walked out. The union charges shop committeemen are not allowed enough time to handle grievances.

Buick General Manager Edward T Ragsdale accused the union officers of displaying a "callous disregard" for members and their families. He said if the strike continues, it will affect more than 11,000 hourly-rated Buick worker

Two strikes remained unsettled at Chrysler plants over the issue of overtime assignments for workers. The UAW has announced its opposition to nonessential overtime for workers while thousands are jobless.

The walkout started Wednesday at a Chrysler plant in Detroit. The other began Thursday at a corporation stamping plant in Twinsburg, Ohio.

In Chicago Heights, Ill., 1,550 were idle at the Ford stamping plant. They struck to protest pending disciplinary action.

UAW members, working without contracts, were excluded from a cost of living allowance of one cent an hour, which the companies said they are giving salaried employes. The UAW contracts with the big three expired 12 weeks ago.

Negotiators have reported no progress in contract sessions between the union and the auto makers.

A collision at 10:06 p.m. at Elizabeth St. and Harvey Ave. involved cars driven by Michael Horoszko, 229 W. 2nd St., and Mary J. Fox, 252 W. 7th St.

The woman told police her car started to slide on the curve and she was unable to avoid hitting the Horoszko car.

No specific date was given in the announcement.

Booth said initial steps already have been taken to retire the B yen, a special blocked yen which has served as Ryukyuan currency since the end of World War II. One U.S. dollar is worth 120 B yen.

Hearing Set For New Dam

Structure Like That At Stratton Planned

Rep. Arch Moore of West Virginia 1st Congressional District announced that public hearings are to be held in Wheeling Sept. 19 in regard to replacement of three locks and dams on the Ohio River.

The meeting will be held in the Wheeling Electric Auditorium at 10 a. m. and will be conducted by the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

The hearing will deal with the construction of new facilities to replace Dams 12, 13 and 14 between Wheeling and Clarington. These locks and dams now average approximately 50 years in age and are deteriorated to such an extent that they can no longer adequately handle river navigation.

The engineers propose to replace the three existing facilities with a single modern lock and dam designed to meet existing needs and to handle future growth of river traffic and similar to that being built at
